47 of 1986.

(2) All words and expressions used and not defined in this Act but defined in the Indian Penal Code, the Army Act, 1950 or the National Security Guard Act, 1986, shall have the same meanings respectively assigned to them in that Code or those Acts.

(3) In this Act, references to any law not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall be construed as references to the corresponding law in force in that State.

3. (1) The following persons appointed (whether on deputation or in any other manner) in the Force shall be subject to this Act, wherever they may be, namely:—

Persons subject to this Act.

(a) officers and subordinate officers; and

(b) under-officers and other persons enrolled under this Act.

(2) Every person subject to this Act shall remain so subject until repatriated, retired, released, discharged, removed or dismissed from the Force in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules.

CHAPTER II

CONSTITUTION OF THE FORCE AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE FORCE

4. (1) There shall be an armed force of the Union called the Sashastra Seema Bal for ensuring the security of the borders of India and performing such other duties as may be entrusted to it by the Central Government.

Constitution of the Force.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Force shall be constituted in such manner as may be prescribed and the conditions of service of the members of the Force shall be such as may be prescribed.

5. (1) The general superintendence, direction and control of the Force shall vest in, and be exercised by, the Central Government and subject thereto and to the provisions of this Act and the rules made in this behalf, the command and supervision of the Force shall vest in an officer to be appointed by the Central Government as the Director-General of the Force.

Control, direction, etc.

(2) The Director-General shall, in the discharge of his duties under this Act, be assisted by such number of Additional Directors-General, Inspectors-General, Deputy Inspectors-General, Additional Deputy Inspectors-General, Commandants and other officers, as may be appointed by the Central Government.

Enrolment. 6. The persons to be enrolled to the Force, the mode of enrolment and the procedure for enrolment shall be such as may be prescribed.

Liability for service outside India. 7. Every member of the Force shall be liable to serve in any part of India as well as outside India.

Resignation and withdrawal from the post. 8. No member of the Force shall be at liberty,—
 (a) to resign his appointment during the term of his engagement; or
 (b) to withdraw himself from all or any of the duties of his appointment, except with the previous permission in writing of the prescribed authority.

Tenure of service under the Act. 9. Every person subject to this Act shall hold office during the pleasure of the President.

Termination of service by Central Government. 10. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules, the Central Government may dismiss or remove from the service any person subject to this Act.

Dismissal, removal or reduction in rank by the Director-General and by other officers. 11. (1) The Director-General, or any Additional Director-General or Inspector-General may dismiss or remove from the service or reduce to a lower grade or rank any person subject to this Act other than an officer.

(2) An officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General or any prescribed officer may dismiss or remove from the service any person under his command other than an officer or a subordinate officer of such rank as may be prescribed.

(3) Any such officer as is mentioned in sub-section (2) may reduce to a lower grade or rank any person under his command except an officer or a subordinate officer.

(4) The exercise of any power under this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules.

Certificate of termination of service. 12. A subordinate officer, or an under-officer or other enrolled person who is retired, discharged, released, removed or dismissed from the service shall be furnished by the officer, to whose command he is subject, with a certificate in Hindi or English language setting forth —

- (a) the authority terminating his service;
- (b) the cause for such termination; and
- (c) the full period of his service in the Force.

Restrictions respecting right to form association, freedom of speech, etc. 13. (1) No person subject to this Act shall, without the previous sanction in writing of the Central Government or of the prescribed authority,—

(a) be a member of, or be associated in any way with, any trade union, labour union, political association, or with any class of trade unions, labour unions or political associations; or

(b) be a member of, or be associated in any way with, any society, institution, association or organisation which is not recognised as part of the Force or is not of a purely social, recreational or religious nature; or

(c) communicate with the press or publish or cause to be published any book, letter or other document except where such communication or publication is in the bona fide discharge of his duties or is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character or is of a prescribed nature.

Explanation.—If any question arises as to whether any society, institution, association or organisation is of a purely social, recreational or religious nature under clause (b) of this sub-section, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

(2) No person subject to this Act shall participate in, or address, any meeting or take part in any demonstration organised by any body of persons for any political purposes or for such other purposes as may be prescribed.

14. (1) Any person subject to this Act other than an officer who deems himself wronged by any superior or other officer may complain to the officer under whose command he is serving.

Redressal of grievances of persons other than officers.

(2) When the officer complained against is the officer to whom any complaint should, under sub-section (1), be preferred, the aggrieved person may complain to such officer's next superior officer.

(3) Every officer receiving any such complaint shall make as complete an investigation into it as may be possible for giving full redress to the complainant, or when necessary, refer the complaint to a superior authority.

(4) The Director-General may revise any decision made under any of the foregoing sub-sections, but, subject thereto, such decision shall be final.

15. Any officer who deems himself wronged by his commanding officer or any other superior officer and who, on due application made to his commanding officer or such other superior officer, does not receive the redress to which he considers himself entitled, may complain to the Director-General or the Central Government through proper channel.

Redressal of grievances of officers.

CHAPTER III

shall, on conviction by a Force Court,—

(i) if he commits any such offence when on active duty, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and

(ii) if he commits any such offence when not on active duty, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Mutiny.

19. Any person subject to this Act who commits any of the following offences, namely:—

(a) begins, incites, causes or conspires with any other person to cause any mutiny in the Force or in the military, naval or air force of India or any forces co-operating therewith; or

(b) joins in any such mutiny; or

(c) being present at any such mutiny, does not use his utmost endeavours to suppress the same; or

(d) knowing or having reason to believe in the existence of any such mutiny, or of any intention to mutiny or of any such conspiracy, does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer or other superior officer; or

(e) endeavours to seduce any person in the Force or in the military, naval or air force of India or any forces co-operating therewith from his duty or allegiance to the Union, shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer death or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

20. (1) Any person subject to this Act who deserts or attempts to desert the service shall, on conviction by a Force Court,—

Desertion and aiding desertion.

(a) if he commits the offence when on active duty or when under orders for active duty, be liable to suffer death or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and

(b) if he commits the offence under any other circumstances, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

(2) Any person subject to this Act who knowingly harbours any such deserter shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

(3) Any person subject to this Act who, being cognizant of any desertion or attempt at desertion of a person subject to this Act, does not forthwith give notice to his own or some other superior officer, or take any steps in his power to cause such person to be apprehended, shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, a person deserts,—

(a) if he absents from his unit or the place of duty at any time with the intention of not reporting back to such unit or place, or who, at any time and under any circumstances when absent from his unit or place of duty, does any act which shows that he has an intention of not reporting to such unit or place of duty;

(b) if he absents himself without leave with intent to avoid any active duty.

21. Any person subject to this Act who commits any of the following offences, namely:—

Absence without leave.

(a) absents himself without leave; or

(b) without sufficient cause overstays leave granted to him; or False evidence.

41. Any person subject to this Act who, having been duly sworn or affirmed before any Force Court or other court competent under this Act to administer an oath or affirmation, makes any statement which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Unlawful detention of pay.

42. Any officer, subordinate officer or an under-officer who, having received the pay of a person subject to this Act unlawfully detains or refuses to pay the same when due, shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Violation of good order and discipline.

43. Any person subject to this Act who is guilty of any act or omission which, though not specified in this Act, is prejudicial to good order and discipline of the Force shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Miscellaneous offences.

44. Any person subject to this Act who commits any of the following offences, namely:—

(a) being in command at any post or on the march, and receiving a complaint that any one under his command has beaten or otherwise maltreated or oppressed any person, or has disturbed any fair or market, or committed any riot or trespass, fails to have due reparation made to the injured person or to report the case to the proper authority; or

(b) by defiling any place of worship, or otherwise, intentionally insults the religion, or wounds the religious feelings of, any person; or

(c) attempts to commit suicide, and in such attempt does any act towards the commission of such offence; or

(d) being below the rank of subordinate officer, when off duty, appears without proper authority, in or about camp, or in or about, or when going to, or returning from, any town or bazaar, carrying a rifle, sword or other offensive weapon; or

(e) directly or indirectly accepts or obtains, or agrees to accept, or attempts to obtain, for himself or for any other person, any gratification as a motive or reward for procuring the enrolment of any person, or leave of absence, promotion or any other advantage or indulgence for any person in the service; or

(f) commits any offence against the property or person of any inhabitant of, or resident in, the country in which he is serving, shall, on conviction by a Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Attempt.

45. Any person subject to this Act who attempts to commit any of the offences specified in sections 16 to 44 (both inclusive) and in such attempt does any act towards the commission of the offence shall, on conviction by a Force Court, where no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such attempt, be liable,—

(a) if the offence attempted to be committed is punishable with death, to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and

(b) if the offence attempted to be committed is punishable with imprisonment, to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to one-half of the longest term provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

46. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences specified in sections 16 to 44 (both inclusive) shall, on conviction by a Force Court, if the Act abetted is committed in consequence of the abetment and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer the punishment provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Abetment of offences that have been committed.

47. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences punishable with death, under sections 16, 19 and sub-section (I) of section 20 shall, on conviction by a Force Court, if that offence be not committed in consequence of the abetment, and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Abetment of offences punishable with death and not committed.

48. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences specified in sections 16 to 44 (both inclusive) and punishable with imprisonment shall, on conviction by a Force Court, if that offence be not committed in consequence of the abetment, and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to one-half of the longest term provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Abetment of offences punishable with imprisonment and not committed.

49. Subject to the provisions of section 50, any person subject to this Act who at any place in, or beyond, India commits any civil offence shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Act and, if charged therewith under this section shall be liable to be tried by a Force Court and, on conviction, be punishable as follows, namely:—

Civil offences.

(a) if the offence is one which would be punishable under any law in force in India with death, he shall be liable to suffer any punishment, assigned for the offence, by the aforesaid law and such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and

(b) in any other case, he shall be liable to suffer any punishment, assigned for the offence by the law in force in India, or imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

50. A person subject to this Act who commits an offence of murder or culpable homicide not amounting to murder against, or of rape in relation to, a person not subject to this Act shall not be deemed to be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall not be tried by a Force Court, unless he commits any of the said offences—

Civil offences not triable by a Force Court.

(a) while on active duty; or

(b) at any place outside India; or

(c) at any place specified by the Central Government by notification, in this behalf.

CHAPTER IV

PUNISHMENTS

Punishment
by Force
Courts.

51. (1) Punishments may be inflicted in respect of offences committed by persons subject to this Act and convicted by Force Courts according to the scale following, namely:—

(a) death;

(b) imprisonment which may be for the term of life or any other lesser term but excluding imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months in Force custody;

(c) dismissal or removal from the service;

(d) compulsory retirement from the service;

(e) imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months in Force custody;

(f) reduction to the ranks or to a lower rank or grade or a place in the list of their rank in the case of an under-officer;

(g) reduction to next lower rank in case of an officer or subordinate officer:

Provided that no officer shall be reduced to a rank lower than the one to which he was initially appointed;

(h) forfeiture of seniority of rank and forfeiture of all or any part of the service for the purpose of promotion;

(i) forfeiture of service for the purpose of increased pay or pension;

(j) fine, in respect of civil offences;

(k) severe reprimand or reprimand except in the case of persons below the rank of an under-officer;

(l) forfeiture of pay and allowances for a period not exceeding three months for an offence committed on active duty;

(m) forfeiture in the case of person sentenced to dismissal from the service of all arrears of pay and allowances and other public money due to him at the time of such dismissal;

(n) stoppage of pay and allowances until any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence for which he is convicted is made good.

(2) Each of the punishments specified in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be inferior in degree to every punishment preceding it in the above scale.

Alternative punishments
Courts.

52. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a Force Court may, on convicting a person subject to this Act of any of the offences specified in sections 16 to 48 (both inclusive) award either the particular punishment with which the offence is stated in the said sections to be punishable or, in lieu thereof, any one of the punishments lower in the scale set out in section 51 regard being had to the nature and degree of the offence.

Combination
ments.

53. A Force Court may award in addition to, or without, any other punishment, the punishment specified in clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 51 or any one or more of the punishments specified in clauses (f) to (n) of that sub-section.

Retention in the Force of a person
active duty.

54. When on active duty an enrolled person has been sentenced by a Force Court to imprisonment whether combined with dismissal or not, the prescribed officer may direct that such person may be retained to serve in the ranks, and such service shall be reckoned as part of his term of imprisonment.

55. Punishments may also be inflicted in respect of offences committed by persons subject to this Act without the intervention of a Force Court in the manner stated in sections 56, 58 and 59.

Punishments otherwise than by Force Courts.

56. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 57, a commanding officer of and above the rank of Commandant may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against a person subject to this Act, other than an officer or a subordinate officer, who is charged with an offence under this Act and award such person, to the extent prescribed, one or more of the following punishments, namely:—

Minor punishments.

(a) imprisonment in Force custody up to twenty-eight days;

(b) detention up to twenty-eight days;

(c) confinement to the lines up to twenty-eight days;

(d) extra guards or duties;

(e) deprivation of any special position or special emoluments or any acting rank;

(f) severe reprimand or reprimand;

(g) fine up to fourteen days' pay in any one month;

(h) deductions from his pay and allowances of any sum required to make good any loss or damage occasioned by the offence for which he is punished.

(2) If any unit, training centre or other establishment of the Force is being temporarily commanded by an officer of the rank of Second-in-Command or Deputy Commandant, such officer shall have full powers of a commanding officer specified in sub-section (1).

(3) Subject to the provisions of section 57, a Deputy Commandant or an Assistant Commandant, commanding a company or a detachment or an outpost, shall have the power to proceed against a person subject to this Act, other than an officer or a subordinate officer, who is charged with an offence under this Act and award such person to the extent prescribed, one or more of the punishments specified in clauses (a) to (d) and (h) of sub-section (1) provided that the maximum limit of punishment awarded under each of the clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall not exceed fourteen days.

(4) A subordinate officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector who is commanding a detachment or an outpost shall have the powers to proceed against a person subject to this Act, other than a subordinate officer or an under-officer, who is charged with an offence under this Act and award such person to the extent prescribed, one or more of the punishments specified under clauses (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) provided that the maximum limit of punishment awarded under clause (c) shall not exceed fourteen days.

57. (1) In the case of an award of two or more of the punishments specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 56, the punishments specified in clause (c) or clause (d) shall take effect only at the end of the punishment specified in clause (a) or clause (b).

Limit of punishments under section 56.

(2) When two or more of the punishments specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 56 are awarded to a person conjointly, or when already undergoing one or more of the said punishments, the whole extent of the punishments shall not exceed in the aggregate forty-two days.

(3) The punishments specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 56 shall not be awarded to any person who is of the rank of an under-officer or was, at the time of committing the offence for which he is punished, of such rank.

(4) The punishment specified in clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 56 shall not be awarded to any person below the rank of an under-officer.

Punishment of persons of or below the rank of Commandant by Inspector-General and others.

58. (1) An officer not below the rank of Inspector-General may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against an officer of or below the rank of Commandant who is charged with an offence under this Act and award one or more of the following punishments, namely:—

(a) forfeiture of seniority, or in the case of any of them whose promotion depends upon length of service, forfeiture of service for the purpose of promotion for a period not exceeding one year, but subject to the right of the accused previous to the award to elect to be tried by a Force Court;

(b) severe reprimand or reprimand;

(c) deduction from pay and allowances of any sum required to make good any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence of which he is convicted.

(2) An officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against a person of or below the rank of Subedar-Major or Inspector who is charged with an offence under this Act and award one or more of the following punishments, namely:—

(a) forfeiture of seniority, or in the case of any of them whose promotion depends upon the length of service, forfeiture of service for the purpose of promotion for a period not exceeding one year, but subject to the right of the accused previous to the award to elect to be tried by a Force Court;

(b) severe reprimand or reprimand;

(c) deduction from pay and allowances of any sum required to make good any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence of which he is convicted.

(3) An officer not below the rank of Commandant may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against a person of or below the rank of Subedar-Major or Inspector who is charged with an offence under this Act and award any one or both of the following punishments, namely:—

(a) severe reprimand or reprimand;

(b) deduction from pay and allowances of any sum required to make good any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence of which he is convicted.

Cancellation, variation or remittance of sentence.

59. (1) In every case in which punishment has been awarded under section 58, certified true copies of the proceedings shall be forwarded, in the prescribed manner, by the officer awarding the punishment to the prescribed superior authority who may, if the punishment awarded appears to him to be illegal, unjust or excessive, cancel, vary or remit the punishment and make such other direction as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), a "superior authority" means,—

(a) any officer superior in command to such officer who has awarded the punishment;

(b) in the case of punishment awarded by Director-General, the Central Government.

Collective fines.

60. (1) Whenever any weapon or part of weapon or ammunition, forming part of the equipment of a unit, is lost or stolen, a commanding officer not below the rank of the Commandant of that unit may, after making such enquiry as he thinks fit, impose such collective fine as may be prescribed, upon the subordinate officers, under-officers and men of such unit, or upon so many of them as, in his judgment, should be held responsible for such loss or theft.

(2) Such fine shall be assessed as a percentage of the pay of the individuals on whom it falls.

CHAPTER V

DEDUCTIONS FROM PAY AND ALLOWANCES

61. (1) The following deductions may be made from the pay and allowances of an officer, namely:—

Deductions from pay and allowances of persons subject to this Act.

(a) all pay and allowances due to an officer for every day he absents himself without leave, unless a satisfactory explanation has been given to, and accepted by, the Inspector-General under whom he is for the time being serving;

(b) all pay and allowances for every day while he is in custody on a charge for an offence for which he is afterwards convicted by a criminal court or Force Court or by an officer exercising authority under section 58;

(c) any sum required to make good the pay of any person subject to this Act which he has unlawfully retained or unlawfully refused to pay;

(d) any sum required to make good such compensation for any expenses, loss, damage or destruction occasioned by the commission of an offence as may be determined by the Force Court by whom he is convicted of such offence or by an officer exercising authority under section 58;

(e) all pay and allowances ordered by Force Court;

(f) any sum required to be paid as fine awarded by a criminal court or a Force Court;

(g) any sum required to make good any loss, damage or destruction of public or Force property which, after due investigation, appears to the Inspector-General under whom the officer is for the time being serving, to have been occasioned by the wrongful act or negligence on the part of the officer;

(h) all pay and allowances forfeited by order of the Central Government if the officer is found by a court of inquiry constituted by the Director-General in this behalf, to have deserted to the enemy, or while in enemy hands, to have served with, or under the orders of, the enemy, or in any manner to have aided the enemy, or to have allowed himself to be taken prisoner by the enemy through want of due precaution or through disobedience of orders or wilful neglect of duty, or having been taken prisoner by the enemy, to have failed to rejoin his service when it was possible to do so;

(i) any sum required by order of the Central Government to be paid for the maintenance of his wife or his legitimate or illegitimate child or step child or towards the cost of any relief given by the said Government to the said wife or child.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 63, the following deductions may be made from the pay and allowances of a person subject to this Act, other than an officer, namely:—

(a) all pay and allowances for every day of absence either on desertion or without leave or as a prisoner of war unless a satisfactory explanation has been given and accepted by his commanding officer and for every day of imprisonment awarded by a criminal court, Force Court or an officer exercising authority under section 56;

(b) all pay and allowances for every day while he is in custody on a charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted by a criminal court or Force Court or on a charge of absence without leave for which he is afterwards awarded imprisonment by an officer exercising authority under section 56;

(c) all pay and allowances for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the medical officer attending on him to have been caused by an offence under this Act committed by him;

(d) all pay and allowances for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the medical officer attending on him to have been caused by his own misconduct or imprudence, such sum as may be specified by the order of the Director-General;

(e) all pay and allowances ordered by Force Court or by an officer exercising authority under any of the sections 56 and 58 to be forfeited or stopped;

(f) all pay and allowances for every day between his being recovered from the enemy and his dismissal from the service in consequence of his conduct when being taken prisoner by, or while in the hands of the enemy;

(g) any sum required to make good such compensation for any expenses, loss, damage or destruction caused by him to the Central Government or to any building or property or any private fund of the Force as may be awarded by his commanding officer;

(h) any sum required to pay a fine awarded by a criminal court, Force Court exercising jurisdiction under section 49 or an officer exercising authority under any of the sections 56 and 60;

(i) any sum required by order of the Central Government or any prescribed officer to be paid for the maintenance of his wife, or his legitimate or illegitimate child or step child or towards the cost of any relief given by the said Government to the said wife or child.

(3) For computation of time of absence or custody under this section,—

(a) no person shall be treated as absent or in custody for a day unless the absence or custody has lasted, whether wholly in one day, or partly in one day and partly in another for six consecutive hours or upwards;

(b) any absence or custody for less than a day may be reckoned as absence or custody for a day, if such absence or custody prevented the absentee from fulfilling any duty as member of the Force which was thereby thrown upon some other person;

(c) absence or custody for twelve consecutive hours or upwards may be reckoned as absence or custody for the whole of each day during any portion of which the person was absent or in custody;

(d) a period of absence, or imprisonment, which commences before, and ends after, midnight may be reckoned as a day.

Pay and allowances during trial.

62. In the case of any person subject to this Act who is in custody or under suspension from duty on a charge for an offence, the prescribed officer may direct that the whole or any part of the pay and allowances of such person shall be withheld, pending the result of his trial on the charge against him, in order to give effect to the provisions of clause (b) of sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 61.

Limit of certain deductions.

63. The total deductions from the pay and allowances of a person made under clauses (e) and (g) to (i) of sub-section (2) of section 61 shall not, except where he is sentenced to dismissal or removal, exceed in any one month one-half of his pay and allowances for that month.

Deduction from public money due to a person.

64. Any sum authorised by this Act to be deducted from the pay and allowances of any person may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovering the same, be deducted from any public money due to him other than a pension.

Pay and allowances of prisoner of war during inquiry into his conduct.

65. Where the conduct of any person subject to this Act when being taken prisoner by, or while in the hands of, the enemy, is to be inquired into under this Act or any other law, the Director-General or any officer authorised by him may order that the whole or any part of the pay and allowances of such person shall be withheld pending the result of such inquiry.

66. Any deduction from pay and allowances authorised by this Act may be remitted in such manner and to such extent, and by such authority, as may from time to time be prescribed. Remission of deductions.

67. (1) In the case of all persons subject to this Act, being prisoners of war, whose pay and allowances have been forfeited under clause (h) of sub-section (1) or clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 61 but in respect of whom a remission has been made under section 66, it shall be lawful for the Central Government or the Director-General, when so authorised by the Central Government, to make provisions in respect of pay and allowances for any dependants of such persons and any such remission shall in that case be deemed to apply only to the balance thereafter remaining of such pay and allowances. Provision for dependants of prisoner of war from his remitted deductions and pay and allowances.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Central Government or the Director-General, when so authorised by the Central Government, to make provisions for any dependants of any person subject to this Act who is a prisoner of war, or is missing, in respect of his pay and allowances.

68. For the purposes of section 67, a person shall be deemed to continue to be a prisoner of war until the conclusion of any inquiry into his conduct such as is referred to in section 65 and if he is dismissed from the service in consequence of such conduct, until the date of such dismissal. Period during which a person is deemed to be a prisoner of war.

CHAPTER VI

ARREST AND PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL

69. (1) Any person subject to this Act who is charged with any offence may be taken into Force custody under the order of any superior officer. Custody of offenders.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an officer may order into Force custody any other officer, though such other officer may be of a higher rank, if he engages in a quarrel, affray or disorder.

70. (1) It shall be the duty of every commanding officer to take care that a person under his command when charged with an offence is not detained in custody for more than forty-eight hours after the committal of such person into custody is reported to him, without the charge being investigated, unless investigation in the prescribed procedure, within that period seems to him to be impracticable having regard to the public service. Duty of commanding officer in regard to detention.

(2) The case of every person being detained in custody beyond a period of forty-eight hours, and the reasons therefor, shall be reported by the commanding officer to the next higher officer or such other officer to whom an application may be made to convene a Force Court for the trial of the person charged.

(3) In reckoning the period of forty-eight hours specified in sub-section (1), Sundays and other public holidays shall be excluded.

(4) The manner in which and the period for which any person subject to this Act may be taken into and detained in Force custody, pending the trial by any competent authority for any offence committed by him, shall be in such manner as may be prescribed.

71. In every case where any such person as is mentioned in section 69 and as is not on active duty, remains in such custody for a longer period than eight days without a Force Court for his trial being convened, a special report giving reasons for the delay shall be made by his commanding officer in the manner prescribed, and a similar report shall be forwarded at intervals of every eight days until a Force Court is convened or such person is released from custody. Interval between committal and trial.

72. Whenever any person, subject to this Act, who is accused of an offence under this Act, is within the jurisdiction of any magistrate or police officer, such magistrate or police officer shall aid in the apprehension and delivery to Force custody of such person upon receipt of a written application to that effect signed by his commanding officer or an officer authorised by the commanding officer in that behalf. Arrest by civil authorities.

Capture of deserters.

73. (1) Whenever any person subject to this Act deserts, the commanding officer of the unit to which he belongs or is attached, shall give information of the desertion to such civil authorities as, in his opinion, may be able to afford assistance towards the capture of the deserter; and such authorities shall thereupon take steps for the apprehension of the said deserter in like manner as if he were a person for whose apprehension a warrant had been issued by a magistrate, and shall deliver the deserter, when apprehended, into Force custody.

(2) Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person reasonably believed to be subject to this Act, and to be a deserter or to be travelling without authority, and shall bring him without delay before the nearest magistrate, to be dealt with according to law.

Inquiry into absence without leave.

74. (1) When any person subject to this Act has been absent from duty without due authority for a period of thirty days, a court of inquiry shall, as soon as practicable, be appointed by such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed; and such court shall, on oath or affirmation administered in the prescribed manner, inquire in respect of the absence of the person, and the deficiency, if any, in the property of the Government entrusted to his care, or in any arms, ammunition, equipment, instruments, clothing or accessories; and if satisfied of the fact of such absence without due authority or other sufficient cause, the court shall declare such absence and the period thereof and the said deficiency, if any, and the commanding officer of the unit to which the person belongs or is attached, shall make a record thereof in the prescribed manner.

(2) If the person declared absent does not afterwards surrender or is not apprehended, he shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a deserter.

Force Police Officers.

75. (1) The Director-General or any prescribed officer may appoint persons (in this Act referred to as Force Police) for discharging the functions specified in sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The duties of a person appointed under sub-section (1) are to take charge of persons confined for any offence, to preserve good order and discipline and to prevent breaches of the same by persons serving in, or attached to the Force.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 69, a person appointed under sub-section (1) may, at any time, arrest and detain for trial any person subject to this Act who commits, or is charged with, an offence, and may also carry into effect any punishment to be inflicted in pursuance of a sentence awarded by a Force Court or by an officer exercising authority under section 56 but shall not inflict any punishment on his own authority:

Provided that no officer shall be so arrested or detained otherwise than on the order of another officer.

CHAPTER VII

FORCE COURTS

Kinds of Force Courts.

76. For the purposes of this Act, there shall be three kinds of Force Courts, namely :—

- (a) General Force Courts;
- (b) Petty Force Courts; and
- (c) Summary Force Courts, which shall be convened in the manner prescribed.

Power to convene a General Force Court.

77. A General Force Court may be convened by the Central Government or the Director-General or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of the Director-General.

Power to convene a Petty Force Court.

78. A Petty Force Court may be convened by an officer having power to convene a General Force Court or by an officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of any such officer.

- 79. A warrant issued under section 77 or section 78 may contain such restrictions, reservations or conditions as the officer issuing it may think fit. Warrants issued under sections 77 and 78.
- 80. A General Force Court shall consist of not less than five officers. Composition of a General Force Court.
- 81. A Petty Force Court shall consist of not less than three officers. Composition of a Petty Force Court.
- 82. (1) A Summary Force Court may be held by the commanding officer of any unit and he alone shall constitute the Court. Summary Force Court.
- (2) The proceedings shall be attended throughout by two other persons who shall be officers or subordinate officers or one of either, and who shall not as such, be sworn or affirmed.
- 83. (1) If a Force Court after the commencement of a trial is reduced below the minimum number of officers required by this Act, it shall be dissolved. Dissolution of a Force Court.
- (2) If, on account of the illness of the concerned Judge Attorney or, as the case may be, Deputy Judge Attorney-General or Additional Judge Attorney-General or of the accused before the finding, it is impossible to continue the trial, the Force Court shall be dissolved.
- (3) The authority or officer who convened a Force Court may dissolve the same if it appears to him that the exigencies of the service or necessities of discipline render it impossible or inexpedient to continue the said Force Court.
- (4) Where a Force Court is dissolved under this section, the accused may be tried again.
- 84. A General Force Court shall have the power to try any person subject to this Act for any offence punishable thereunder and to pass any sentence authorised thereby. Powers of a General Force Court.
- 85. A Petty Force Court shall have the power to try any person subject to this Act other than an officer or a subordinate officer for any offence made punishable thereunder and to pass any sentence authorised by this Act other than a sentence of death or imprisonment for a term exceeding two years. Powers of a Petty Force Court.
- 86. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), a Summary Force Court may try any offence punishable under this Act. Powers of a Summary Force Court.
- (2) When there is no grave reason for immediate action and reference can without detriment to discipline be made to the officer empowered to convene a Petty Force Court for the trial of the alleged offender, an officer holding a Summary Force Court shall not try without such reference any offence punishable under any of the sections 16, 19 and 49, or any offender against the officer holding the Court.
- (3) A Summary Force Court may try any person subject to this Act and under the command of the officer holding the Court, except an officer or a subordinate officer.
- (4) A Summary Force Court may pass any sentence which may be passed under this Act, except the sentence of death or of imprisonment for a term exceeding the limit specified in sub-section (5).
- (5) The limit referred to in sub-section (4) shall be,—
- (a) one year, if the officer holding the Force Court holds the rank not below that of a Commandant;
- (b) three months, in any other case.

Prohibition of second trial.

87. (1) When any person, subject to this Act has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a Force Court or by a criminal court or has been dealt with under section 56 or section 58, he shall not be liable to be tried again for the same offence by a Force Court or dealt with under the said sections.

(2) When any person, subject to this Act, has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a Force Court or has been dealt with under section 56 or section 58, he shall not be liable to be tried again by a criminal court for the same offence or on the same facts.

Period of limitation for trial.

88. (1) Except as provided by sub-section (2), no trial by a Force Court of any person subject to this Act for any offence shall be commenced after the expiration of a period of three years from the date of such offence.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to a trial for an offence of desertion or for any of the offences mentioned in section 19.

(3) In the computation of the period of time mentioned in sub-section (1), any time spent by such person in evading arrest after the commission of the offence, shall be excluded.

Trial, etc., of offender who ceases to be subject to this Act.

89. (1) Where an offence under this Act had been committed by any person while subject to this Act, and he has ceased to be so subject, he may be taken into and kept in Force custody and tried and punished for such offence as if he continued to be so subject.

(2) No such person shall be tried for an offence, unless his trial commences within six months after he had ceased to be subject to this Act:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to the trial of any such person for an offence of desertion or for any of the offences mentioned in section 19 or shall affect the jurisdiction of a criminal court to try any offence triable by such court as well as by a Force Court.

Application of Act during term of sentence.

90. (1) When a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Force Court to imprisonment, this Act shall apply to him during the term of his sentence, though he is dismissed from the Force, or has otherwise ceased to be subject to this Act, and he may be kept, removed, imprisoned and punished as if he continued to be subject to this Act.

(2) When a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Force Court to death, this Act shall apply to him till the sentence is carried out.

Place of trial, etc.

91. (1) Any person subject to this Act who commits any offence under this Act may be tried and punished for such offence at any place.

(2) The persons by whom an accused may be defended in a trial and appearance of such persons thereat may be as prescribed.

Choice between criminal court and Force Court.

92. When a criminal court and a Force Court have each jurisdiction in respect of an offence, it shall be in the discretion of the Director-General, Additional Director-General or the Inspector-General or the Deputy Inspector-General or the Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the accused person is serving or such other officer as may be prescribed, to decide before which court the proceedings shall be instituted, and if that officer decides that they shall be instituted before a Force Court, then he may direct that the accused person shall be detained in Force custody.

Power of criminal court to require delivery of offender.

93. (1) When a criminal court having jurisdiction is of opinion that proceedings shall be instituted before itself in respect of any alleged offence, it may, by written notice, require the officer referred to in section 92 at his option, either to deliver over the offender to the nearest magistrate to be proceeded against according to law, or to postpone proceedings, pending a reference to the Central Government.

(2) In every such case the said officer shall either deliver over the offender in compliance with the requisition, or shall forthwith refer the question as to the court before which the proceedings are to be instituted, for the determination of the Central Government whose order upon such reference shall be final.

CHAPTER VIII

PROCEDURE OF FORCE COURTS

94. At every General Force Court or Petty Force Court, the senior member shall be the presiding officer. Presiding officer.

95. (1) Every General Force Court shall, and every Petty Force Court may be attended by a Judge Attorney or a Deputy Judge Attorney-General or an Additional Judge Attorney-General, or, if no such officer is available, an officer approved by the Judge Attorney-General or by any officer authorised in this behalf by the Judge Attorney-General. Judge Attorneys.

(2) The recruitment and conditions of service of Judge Attorney-General, Additional Judge Attorney-General, Deputy Judge Attorney-General and Judge Attorney shall be such as may be prescribed.

96. (1) At all trials by a General Force Court or by a Petty Force Court, as soon as the Court is assembled, the names of the presiding officer and members shall be read over to the accused, who shall thereupon be asked whether he objects to being tried by any officer sitting on the Court. Objections.

(2) If the accused objects to such officer, his objection and also the reply thereto of the officer objected to shall be heard and recorded, and the remaining officers of the Court shall, in the absence of the challenged officer decide on the objection.

(3) If the objection is allowed by one-half or more of the votes of the officers entitled to vote, the objection shall be allowed, and the member objected to shall retire, and his vacancy may be filled in the prescribed manner, by another officer subject to the same right of the accused to object.

(4) When no objection is made, or when an objection has been made and disallowed, or the vacancy of an officer has been filled by another officer under sub-section (3) to which no objection is made or allowed, the Court shall proceed with the trial.

97. (1) An oath or affirmation in the prescribed manner shall be administered to every member of the Force Court and to the Judge Attorney, or, as the case may be, the Deputy Judge Attorney-General or the Additional Judge Attorney-General or the officer approved under section 95, before the commencement of the trial. Oath of members, Judge Attorneys and witnesses.

(2) Every person giving evidence before a Force Court shall be examined after being duly sworn or affirmed in the prescribed form.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall not apply where the witness is a child under twelve years of age and the Force Court is of opinion that though the witness understands the duty of speaking the truth, he does not understand the nature of an oath or affirmation.

98. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), every decision of a Force Court shall be passed by an absolute majority of votes; and where there is an equality of votes on either the finding or the sentence, the decision shall be in favour of the accused. Voting by members.

(2) No sentence of death shall be passed by a General Force Court without the concurrence of at least two-thirds of the members of the Court.

(3) In matters other than an objection or the finding or sentence, the presiding officer shall have a casting vote.

99. The Indian Evidence Act, 1872, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, apply to all proceedings before a Force Court. General rule as to evidence.

100. A Force Court may take judicial notice of any matter within the general knowledge of the members as officers of the Force. Judicial notice.

Summoning of witnesses.

101. (1) The convening officer or the presiding officer of a Force Court or the Judge Attorney or, as the case may be, the Deputy Judge Attorney-General or the Additional Judge Attorney-General or the officer approved under section 95 or the commanding officer of the accused person may, by summons under his hand, require the attendance, at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons, of any person either to give evidence or to produce any document or other thing.

(2) In the case of a witness who is subject to this Act or any other Act relating to the armed forces of the Union, the summons shall be sent to his commanding officer and such officer shall serve it upon him accordingly.

(3) In the case of any other witness, the summons shall be sent to the magistrate within whose jurisdiction he may be, or resides, and such magistrate shall give effect to the summons as if the witness were required in the court of such a magistrate.

(4) When a witness is required to produce any particular or other thing in his possession or power, the summons shall describe it with reasonable precision.

Documents exempted from production.

102. (1) Nothing in section 101 shall be deemed to affect the operation of sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, or to apply to any letter, postcard, telegram or other document in the custody of the postal or telegraph authorities. 1 of 1872.

(2) If any document in such custody is, in the opinion of any District Magistrate, Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court of Sessions or High Court wanted for the purpose of any Force Court, such Magistrate or Court may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to deliver such document to such person as such Magistrate or Court may direct.

(3) If any such document is, in the opinion of any other magistrate or of any Commissioner of Police or District Superintendent of Police, wanted for any such purpose, he may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to cause such search to be made for, and to detain such document pending the orders of any such District Magistrate, Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court of Sessions or High Court.

Commission for examination of witnesses.

103. (1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a Force Court, it appears to the Court that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, in the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such Court may address the Judge Attorney-General in order that a commission to take the evidence of such witness may be issued.

(2) The Judge Attorney-General may then, if he thinks necessary, issue a commission to any Metropolitan Magistrate or Judicial Magistrate of the first class, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such witness resides, to take the evidence of such witness.

(3) The Magistrate to whom the commission is issued, or, if he is the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, or Chief Judicial Magistrate, or such Metropolitan Magistrate, or Judicial Magistrate, as he appoints in this behalf, shall summon the witness before him or proceed to the place where the witness is, and shall take down his evidence in the same manner, and may for this purpose exercise the same powers, as in the trials of warrant-cases under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. 2 of 1974.

(4) When the witness resides in a tribal area or in any place outside India, the commission may be issued in the manner specified in Chapter XXIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. 2 of 1974.

Examination of a witness on commission.

104. (1) The prosecutor and the accused person in any case in which a commission is issued under section 103 may respectively forward any interrogatories in writing which the court may think relevant to the issue, and the Magistrate executing the commission shall examine the witness upon such interrogatories.

(2) The prosecutor and the accused person may appear before such Magistrate by counsel, or, except in the case of an accused person in custody, in person, and may examine, cross-examine and re-examine, as the case may be, the said witness.

(3) After a commission issued under section 103 has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder to the Judge Attorney-General.

(4) On receipt of a commission, and deposition returned under sub-section (3), the Judge Attorney-General shall forward the same to the Court at whose instance the commission was issued or, if such Court has been dissolved, to any other Court convened for the trial of the accused person; and the commission, the return thereto and the deposition shall be open to inspection by the prosecutor and the accused person, and may, subject to all just exceptions, be read in evidence in the case by either the prosecutor or the accused, and shall form part of the proceedings of the Court.

(5) In every case in which a commission is issued under section 103, the trial may be adjourned for specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission.

105. A person charged before a Force Court with—

Conviction for offences not charged.

(a) desertion may be found guilty of attempting to desert or of being absent without leave;

(b) attempting to desert may be found guilty of being absent without leave;

(c) using criminal force may be found guilty of assault;

(d) using threatening language may be found guilty of using insubordinate language;

(e) any one of the offences specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 33 may be found guilty of any other of these offences with which he might have been charged;

(f) an offence punishable under section 49 may be found guilty of any other offence of which he might have been found guilty, if the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 were applicable.

(g) any offence under this Act may, on failure of proof of an offence having been committed in circumstances involving a more severe punishment, be found guilty of the same offence as having been committed in circumstances involving a less severe punishment;

(h) any offence under this Act may be found guilty of having attempted or abetted the commission of that offence, although the attempt or abetment is not separately charged.

106. In any proceeding under this Act, any application, certificate, warrant, reply or other document purporting to be signed by an officer in the service of the Government shall, on production, be presumed to have been duly signed by the person by whom and in the character in which it purports to have been signed, until the contrary is shown.

Presumption as to signatures.

107. (1) Any enrolment paper purporting to be signed by an enrolling officer shall, in proceedings under this Act, be evidence of the person enrolling having given the answers to questions which he is therein represented as having given.

Enrolment paper.

(2) The enrolment of such person may be proved by the production of the original or a copy of this enrolment paper purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the office having the custody of the enrolment paper or service record.

Presumption as to certain documents.

108. (1) A letter, return or other document respecting the service of any person in, or the dismissal, removal or discharge of any person from, any unit of the Force, or respecting the circumstances of any person not having served in, or belonged to, any unit of the Force, if purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Central Government or the Director-General, or by any prescribed officer, shall be evidence of the facts stated in such letter, return or other document.

(2) A Force List or Gazette purporting to be published by authority shall be evidence of the status and rank of the officers, subordinate officers therein mentioned, and of any appointment held by them and of the battalion, unit, or branch of the Force to which they belong.

(3) Where a record is made in any battalion book in pursuance of this Act or of any rules made thereunder or otherwise in the discharge of official duties, and purports to be signed by the commanding officer or by the officers whose duty it is to make such record, such record shall be evidence of the facts therein stated.

(4) A copy of any record in any office of the Force purporting to be certified to be true copy by the officer having custody of such book shall be evidence of such record.

(5) Where any person subject to this Act is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave, and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of any officer or other person, subject to this Act, or any unit of the Force, or has been apprehended by such officer or person, a certificate purporting to be signed by such officer, or by the commanding officer of the unit to which such person belongs or is attached, as the case may be, and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension, and the manner in which he was dressed shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(6) Where any person subject to this Act is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of, or has been apprehended by, a police officer not below the rank of an officer in charge of a police station, a certificate purporting to be signed by such police officer and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension and the manner in which he was dressed shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(7) (a) Any document purporting to be a report under the hand of a Government scientific expert to whom this sub-section applies, upon any matter or thing duly submitted to him for examination or analysis and report in the course of any proceeding under this Act, may be used as evidence in any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Act.

(b) The Force Court may, if it thinks fit, summon and examine any such expert as to the subject matter of his report.

(c) Where any such expert is summoned by a Force Court and he is unable to attend personally, he may, unless the Court has expressly directed him to appear personally, depute an officer who is conversant with the facts of the case to depose in the Court on his behalf.

(d) This sub-section applies to the Government scientific expert, for the time being specified in sub-section (4) of section 293 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

2 of 1974.

Reference by accused to Government officer.

109. (1) If at any trial for desertion or absence without leave, over-staying leave or not rejoining when warned for service, the accused person states in his defence any sufficient or reasonable excuse for his unauthorised absence, and refers in support thereof to any officer in the service of the Government, or if it appears that any such officer is likely to prove or disprove the said statement in the defence, the Court shall address such officer and adjourn the proceedings until his reply is received.

(2) The written reply of any officer so referred to shall, if signed by him, be received in evidence and have the same effect as if made on oath before the Court.

(3) If the Court is dissolved before the receipt of such reply or if the Court omits to comply with the provisions of this section, the convening officer may, at his discretion, annul the proceedings and order a fresh trial.

110. (1) When any person subject to this Act has been convicted by a Force Court of any offence, such Force Court may inquire into, and receive, and record evidence of any previous convictions of such person, either by a Force Court or by a criminal court, or any previous award of punishment under section 56 or section 58, and may further inquire into and record the general character of such person and such other matters as may be prescribed.

Evidence of previous convictions and general character.

(2) Evidence received under this section may be either oral, or in the shape of entries in, or certified extracts from, books of Force Courts or other official record; and it shall not be necessary to give notice before trial to the person tried that evidence as to his previous convictions or character will be received.

(3) At a Summary Force Court, the officer holding the trial may, if he thinks fit, record any previous convictions against the offender, his general character, and such other matters as may be prescribed, as of his own knowledge, instead of requiring them to be proved under the foregoing provisions of this section.

111. (1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a Force Court, it appears to the Court that the person charged is by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or knowing that it was wrong or contrary to law, the Court shall record a finding accordingly.

Lunacy of accused.

(2) The presiding officer of the Court, or, in the case of a Summary Force Court, the officer holding the trial, shall forthwith report the case to the confirming officer, or to the authority empowered to deal with its finding under section 129, as the case may be.

(3) The confirming officer to whom the case is reported under sub-section (2) may, if he does not confirm the finding, take steps to have the accused person tried by the same or another Force Court for the offence with which he was charged.

(4) The authority to whom the finding of a Summary Force Court is reported under sub-section (2) and a confirming officer confirming the finding in any case so reported to him shall order the accused person to be kept in custody in the prescribed manner and shall report the case for the orders of the Central Government.

(5) On receipt of a report under sub-section (4), the Central Government may order the accused person to be detained in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody.

112. Where any accused person, having been found by reason of unsoundness of mind to be incapable of making his defence, is in custody or under detention under section 111, any officer prescribed in this behalf, may—

Subsequent fitness of lunatic accused for trial.

(a) if such person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 111, on the report of a medical officer that he is capable of making his defence, or

(b) if such person is detained in a jail under sub-section (5) of section 111, on a certificate of the Inspector-General of Prisons, and if such person is detained in a lunatic asylum under the said sub-section, on a certificate of any two or more of the visitors of such asylum and if he is detained in any other place under that sub-section, on a certificate of the prescribed authority, that he is capable of making his defence, take steps to have such person tried by the same or another Force Court for the offence with which he was originally charged or, if the offence is a civil offence, by a criminal court.

Transmission to Central Government of order under section 112.

113. A copy of every order made by an officer under section 112 for the trial of the accused shall forthwith be sent to the Central Government.

Release of lunatic accused.

114. Where any person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 111 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section,—

(a) if such person is in custody under the said sub-section (4), on the report of a medical officer, or

(b) if such person is detained under the said sub-section (5), on a certificate from any of the authorities mentioned in clause (b) of section 112 that in the judgment of such officer or authority such person may be released without danger of his causing injury to himself or to any other person, the Central Government may order that such person be released or detained in custody or transferred to a public lunatic asylum if he has not already been sent to such an asylum.

Delivery of lunatic accused to relatives.

115. Where any relative or friend of any person who is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 111 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section desires that he should be delivered to his care and custody, the Central Government may, upon application by such relative or friend and, on his giving security to the satisfaction of that Government that the person delivered shall be properly taken care of, and, prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person, and be produced for the inspection of such officer, and at such times and places, as the Central Government may direct, order such person to be delivered to such relative or friend.

Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial.

116. When any property regarding which any offence appears to have been committed, or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence, is produced before a Force Court during a trial, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the trial, and if the property is subject to speedy or natural decay may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

Order for disposal of property regarding which offence is committed.

117. (1) After the conclusion of a trial before any Force Court, the Court or the office confirming the finding or sentences of such Force Court, or any authority superior to such officer, or, in the case of Summary Force Court whose finding or sentences does not require confirmation, an officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the trial was held, may make such order as it or he thinks fit for the disposal by destruction, confiscation, delivery to any person claiming to be entitled to possession thereof, or otherwise, of any property or document produced before the Court or in its custody, or regarding which any offence appears to have been committed or which has been used for the commission of any offence.

(2) Where any order has been made under sub-section (1) in respect of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, a copy of such order signed and certified by the authority making the same may, whether the trial was held within India or not, be sent to a magistrate within whose jurisdiction such property for the time being is situated, and such magistrate shall thereupon cause the order to be carried into effect as if it were an order passed by him under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

(3) In this section the term "property" includes, in the case of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, not only such property as has been originally in the possession or under the control of any person, but also any property into or for which the same may have been converted or exchanged, and anything acquired by such conversion or exchange whether immediately or otherwise.

2 of 1974.

118. Any trial by a Force Court under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code and the Force Court shall be deemed to be a Court within the meaning of sections 345 and 346 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Powers of Force Court in relation to proceedings under this Act.

119. (1) With a view to obtaining the evidence of any person supposed to have been directly or indirectly concerned in or privy to an offence triable by a Force Court other than a Summary Force Court under this Act, the commanding officer, the convening officer or the Force Court, at any stage of investigation or inquiry into or the trial of, the offence, may tender a pardon to such person on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole of the circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned, whether as principal or abettor, in the commission thereof.

Tender of pardon to accomplices.

(2) The commanding officer or the convening officer who tenders pardon under sub-section (1) shall record,—

(a) his reasons for so doing;

(b) whether the tender was or was not accepted by the person to whom it was made, and shall, on application made by accused, furnish him with a copy of such record free of cost.

(3) Every person accepting a tender of pardon made under sub-section (1)—

(a) shall be examined as a witness by the commanding officer of the accused and in the subsequent trial, if any;

(b) may be detained in Force custody until the termination of the trial.

120. (1) Where, in regard to a person who has accepted a tender of pardon made under section 119, the Judge Attorney, or as the case may be, the Deputy Judge Attorney-General, or the Additional Judge Attorney-General, or the officer approved under section 95, certifies that in his opinion such person has, either by wilfully concealing anything essential or by giving false evidence, not complied with the conditions on which the tender was made, such person may be tried for the offence in respect of which the pardon was so tendered or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the same matter, and also for the offence of giving false evidence:

Trial of person not complying with conditions of pardon.

Provided that such person shall not be tried jointly with any of the other accused.

(2) Any statement made by such person accepting the tender of pardon and recorded by his commanding officer or Force Court may be given in evidence against him at such trial.

(3) At such trial, the accused shall be entitled to plead that he has complied with the condition upon which such tender was made; in which case it shall be for the prosecution to prove that the condition has not been complied with.

(4) At such trial, the Force Court shall, before arraignment, ask the accused whether he pleads that he has complied with the conditions on which the tender of pardon was made.

(5) If the accused does so plead, the Court shall record the plea and proceed with the trial and it shall, before giving its finding on the charge, find whether or not the accused has complied with the conditions of the pardon, and, if it finds that he has so complied, it shall give a verdict of not guilty.

CHAPTER IX

CONFIRMATION AND REVISION OF PROCEEDINGS

121. No finding or sentence of a General Force Court or a Petty Force Court shall be valid except so far as it may be confirmed as provided by this Act.

Finding and sentence not valid unless confirmed.

Power to confirm finding and sentence of General Force Court.

122. The findings and sentences of General Force Courts may be confirmed by the Central Government or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of the Central Government.

Power to confirm finding and sentence of Petty Force Court.

123. The findings and sentences of a Petty Force Court may be confirmed by an officer having power to convene a General Force Court or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of such officer.

Limitation of powers of confirming authority.

124. A warrant issued under section 122 or section 123 may contain such restrictions, reservations or condition as the authority issuing it may think fit.

Power of confirming authority to mitigate, remit or commute sentences.

125. Subject to such restrictions, reservations or conditions, as may be contained in any warrant issued under section 122 or section 123, a confirming authority may, when confirming the sentence of a Force Court, mitigate or remit the punishment thereby awarded or commute that punishment for any punishment or punishments lower in the scale laid down in section 51.

Confirming of findings and sentences on board a ship.

126. When any person subject to this Act is tried and sentenced by a Force Court while on board a ship, the finding and sentence so far as not confirmed and executed on board the ship, may be confirmed and executed in like manner as if such person had been tried at the port of disembarkation.

Revision of finding or sentence.

127. (1) Any finding or sentence of a Force Court which requires confirmation may be once revised by order of the confirming authority and on such revision, the Court, if so directed by the confirming authority, may take additional evidence.

(2) The Court on revision, shall consist of the same officers as were present when the original decision was passed unless any of those officers are unavoidably absent.

(3) In case of such unavoidable absence the cause thereof shall be duly certified in the proceedings and the Court shall proceed with the revision provided that, in the case of a General Force Court it consists of five officers and in the case of a Petty Force Court, of three officers.

Finding and sentence of a Summary Force Court.

128. The finding and sentence of a Summary Force Court shall not require to be confirmed, but may be carried out forthwith.

Transmission of proceedings of Summary Force Court.

129. The proceedings of every Summary Force Court shall be forwarded without delay to the officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the trial was held, or to the prescribed officer, and such officer, or the Director-General or any officer empowered by him in this behalf may, for reasons based on the merits of the case, but not on merely technical grounds, set aside the proceedings, or reduce the sentence to any other sentence which the Court might have passed.

Alteration of finding or sentence in certain cases.

130. (1) Where a finding of guilty by a Force Court, which has been confirmed or which does not require confirmation, is found for any reason to be invalid or cannot be supported by the evidence, the authority which would have had power under section 142 to commute the punishment awarded by the sentence, if the finding had been valid may substitute a new finding and pass a sentence for the offence specified or involved in such finding:

Provided that no such substitution shall be made unless such finding could have been validly made by the Force Court on the charge and unless it appears that the Force Court must have been satisfied of the facts establishing the said offence.

(2) Where a sentence passed by a Force Court which has been confirmed, or which does not require confirmation, not being a sentence passed in pursuance of a new finding substituted under sub-section (1), is found for any reason to be invalid, the authority referred to in sub-section (1) may pass a valid sentence.

(3) The punishment awarded by a sentence passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not be higher in the scale of punishments than, or in excess of, the punishment awarded by, the sentence for which a new sentence is substituted under this section.

(4) Any finding substituted, or any sentence passed, under this section shall, for the purposes of this Act and the rules, have effect as if it were a finding or sentence, as the case may be, of a Force Court.

131. (1) Any person subject to this Act who considers himself aggrieved by any order passed by any Force Court may present a petition to the officer or authority empowered to confirm any finding or sentence of such Force Court, and the confirming authority may take such steps as may be considered necessary to satisfy itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of the order passed or as to the regularity of any proceeding to which the order relates.

Petition
finding or
Force Court.

(2) Any person subject to this Act who considers himself aggrieved by a finding or sentence of any Force Court which has been confirmed, may present a petition to the Central Government, the Director-General or any prescribed officer superior in command to the one who confirmed such finding or sentence, and the Central Government, the Director-General, or the prescribed officer, as the case may be, may pass such order thereon as it or he thinks fit.

132. The Central Government, the Director-General or any prescribed officer may annul the proceedings of any Force Court on the ground that they are illegal or unjust.

Annulment of

CHAPTER X

EXECUTION OF SENTENCES, PARDONS, REMISSIONS, ETC.

133. In executing a sentence of death, a Force Court shall, in its discretion direct that the offender shall suffer death by being hanged by the neck until he be dead, or shall suffer death by being shot to death.

Execution of
death.

134. Whenever any person is sentenced by a Force Court under this Act to imprisonment, the term of his sentence shall, whether it has been revised or not, be reckoned to commence on the day on which the original proceedings were signed by the presiding officer, or in the case of a Summary Force Court, by the Court:

Commencement

Provided that if for any reason beyond the control of the commanding officer or superior officer, the sentence of imprisonment cannot be executed in full or in part, the convict shall be liable to undergo the whole or unexpired portion of sentence, as the case may be, when it becomes possible to carry out the same:

Provided further that the period of detention or confinement, if any, undergone by an accused person during the investigation, inquiry or trial of the case in which he is sentenced and before the date of which the original proceedings were signed shall be set off against the term of his sentence and the liability of such person to undergo imprisonment shall be restricted to the remainder, if any of the term of his sentence.

135. (1) Whenever any sentence of imprisonment is passed under this Act by a Force Court or whenever any sentence of death is commuted to imprisonment, the confirming officer or in case of a Summary Force Court the officer holding the Court or such other officer as may be prescribed shall, save as otherwise provided in sub-sections (3) and (4), direct that the sentence shall be carried out by confinement in a civil prison.

(2) When a direction has been made under sub-section (1), the commanding officer of the person under sentence or such other officer as may be prescribed shall forward a warrant in the prescribed form to the officer in charge of the prison in which such person is to be confined and shall arrange for his despatch to such prison with the warrant.

(3) In the case of a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and passed under this Act by a Force Court, the appropriate officer under sub-section (1) may direct that the sentence shall be carried out by confinement in Force custody instead of in a civil prison.

(4) On active duty, a sentence of imprisonment may be carried out by confinement in such place as the officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the person sentenced is serving or any prescribed officer may from time to time appoint.

Temporary custody of convict.

136. Where a sentence of imprisonment is directed to be undergone in a civil prison, the convict may be kept in Force custody or in any other fit place till such time as it is possible to send him to a civil prison.

Execution of sentence of imprisonment in special cases.

137. Whenever, in the opinion of an officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the trial is held, any sentence or portion of a sentence of imprisonment cannot for special reasons conveniently be carried out in Force custody in accordance with the provisions of section 135, such officer may direct that such sentence or portion of sentence shall be carried out by confinement in any civil prison or other fit place.

Conveyance of prisoner from place to place.

138. A person under sentence of imprisonment may during his conveyance from place to place or when on board a ship, aircraft, or otherwise, be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his safe conduct and removal.

Communication of certain orders to prison officers.

139. Whenever an order is duly made under this Act setting aside or varying any sentence, order or warrant under which any person is confined in a civil prison, a warrant in accordance with such order shall be forwarded by the officer making the order or his staff officer or such other person as may be prescribed, to the officer in charge of the prison in which such person is confined.

Recovery of fine.

140. When a sentence of fine is imposed by a Force Court under section 49, a copy of such sentence signed and certified by the confirming officer, or where no confirmation is required, by the officer holding the trial may be sent to any magistrate in India, and such magistrate shall thereupon cause the fine to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, as if it were a sentence of fine imposed by such

2 of 1974.

Informality or error in order or warrant.

141. Whenever any person is sentenced to imprisonment under this Act, and is undergoing the sentence in any place or manner in which he might be confined under a lawful order or warrant in pursuance of this Act, the confinement of such person shall not be deemed to be illegal only by reason of informality or error in, or as respects the order, warrant or other document, or the authority by which, or in pursuance whereof such person was brought into, or, is confined in any such place, and any such order, warrant or document may be amended accordingly.

Pardon and remission.

142. When any person subject to this Act has been convicted by a Force Court of any offence, the Central Government or the Director-General or, in the case of a sentence, which he could have confirmed or which did not require confirmation, an officer not below the rank of Additional Deputy Inspector-General within whose command such person at the time of conviction was serving, or the prescribed officer may,—

(a) either with or without conditions which the person sentenced accepts, pardon the person or remit the whole or any part of the punishments awarded; or

(b) mitigate the punishment awarded; or

(c) commute such punishment for any less punishment or punishments mentioned in this Act; or

(d) either with or without conditions which the person sentenced accepts, release the person on parole.

- 143. (1) If any condition on which a person has been pardoned or released on parole or a punishment has been remitted is, in the opinion of the authority which granted the pardon, release or remission, not fulfilled, such authority may cancel the pardon, release or remission, and thereupon the sentence of the Court shall be carried into effect as if such pardon, release or remission had not been granted. Cancellation of conditional pardons, release on parole or remission.
- (2) A person whose sentence of imprisonment is carried into effect under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall undergo such imprisonment only for the unexpired portion of his sentence.
- 144. (1) Where a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Force Court to imprisonment, the Central Government, the Director-General or any officer empowered to convene a General Force Court may suspend the sentence whether or not the offender has already been committed to prison or to Force custody. Suspension of sentence of imprisonment.
- (2) The authority or officer specified in sub-section (1) may, in the case of an offender so sentenced direct that until the orders of such authority or officer have been obtained, the offender shall not be committed to prison or to Force custody.
- (3) The powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (2) may be exercised in the case of any such sentence which has been confirmed, reduced or commuted.
- 145. (1) Where the sentence referred to in section 144 is imposed by a Force Court other than a Summary Force Court, the confirming officer may, when confirming the sentence, direct that the offender be not committed to prison or to Force custody until the orders of the authority or officer specified in section 144 have been obtained. Orders pending suspension of sentence.
- (2) Where a sentence of imprisonment is imposed by a Summary Force Court, the officer holding the trial may make the direction referred to in sub-section (1).
- 146. Where a sentence is suspended under section 144, the offender shall forthwith be released from custody. Release on suspension of sentence.
- 147. Any period during which the sentence is under suspension shall be reckoned as part of the term of such sentence. Computation of period of sentence.
- 148. The authority or officer specified in section 144 may, at any time while a sentence is suspended, order— Order after suspension of sentence.
- (a) that the offender be committed to undergo the unexpired portion of the sentence; or
- (b) that the sentence be remitted.
- 149. (1) Where a sentence has been suspended, the case may at any time, and shall at intervals of not more than four months, be reconsidered by the authority or officer not below the rank of an Additional Deputy Inspector-General duly authorised by the authority or officer specified in section 144. Reconsideration of case after suspension of sentence.
- (2) Where on such reconsideration by the officer so authorised, it appears to him that the conduct of offender since his conviction has been such as to justify a remission of sentence, he shall refer the matter to the authority or officer specified in section 144.
- 150. Where an offender, while a sentence on him is suspended under this Act, is sentenced for any other offence, then— Fresh sentence after suspension.
- (a) if the further sentence is also suspended under this Act, the two sentences shall run concurrently;
- (b) if the further sentence is for a period of three months or more and is not suspended under this Act, the offender shall also be committed to prison or Force custody for the unexpired portion of the previous sentence, but both sentences shall run concurrently; and

(c) if the further sentence is for a period of less than three months and is not suspended under this Act, the offender shall be so committed on that sentence only, and the previous sentence shall, subject to any order which may be passed under section 148 or section 149, continue to be suspended.

Scope of power of suspension of sentence.

151. The powers conferred by sections 144 and 148 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the power of mitigation, remission and commutation.

Effect of suspension and remission of sentence on dismissal.

152. (1) Where in addition to any other sentence the punishment of dismissal has been awarded by a Force Court, and such other sentence is suspended under section 144, then, such dismissal shall not take effect until so ordered by the authority or officer specified in section 144.

(2) If such other sentence is remitted under section 148, the punishment of dismissal shall also be remitted.

CHAPTER XI

MISCELLANEOUS

Powers and duties conferrable and imposable on members of the Force.

153. (1) The Central Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, direct that, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the order, any member of the Force may exercise or discharge such of the powers or duties under any Central Act as may be specified in the said order, being the powers and duties which, in the opinion of the Central Government, an officer of the corresponding or lower rank is by such Central Act empowered to exercise or discharge for the said purposes.

(2) The Central Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, confer or impose, with the concurrence of the State Government concerned, any of the powers or duties which may be exercised or discharged under a State Act by a police officer upon a member of the Force who, in the opinion of the Central Government, holds a corresponding or higher rank.

(3) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the order or both Houses agree that the order should not be made, the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that order.

Protection for acts of members of the Force.

154. (1) In any suit or proceeding against any member of the Force for any act done by him in pursuance of a warrant or order of a competent authority, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of such warrant or order.

(2) Any such plea may be proved by the production of the warrant or order directing the act, and if it is so proved, the member of the Force shall thereupon be discharged from liability in respect of the act so done by him, notwithstanding any defect in the jurisdiction of the authority which issued such warrant or order.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any legal proceeding (whether civil or criminal) which may lawfully be brought against any member of the Force for anything done or intended to be done under the powers conferred by, or in pursuance of any provision of this Act or the rules, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of was committed and not otherwise, and notice in writing of such proceeding and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant or his superior officer at least one month before the commencement of such proceeding.

155. (1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the manner of constitution of the Force and conditions of service of its members under section 4;

(b) superintendence, direction and control of the Force under section 5;

(c) the persons to be enrolled to the Force, mode of enrolment and procedure thereof under section 6;

(d) the authority, to whom resignation to be submitted and the permission for withdrawal from duty to be obtained from, under section 8;

(e) the dismissal, removal and reduction in rank of persons under section 11;

(f) the authority and other matters required to be prescribed under section 13;

(g) the amount and the incidence of fine to be imposed under section 60;

(h) the manner and extent of deductions from pay and allowances and the authority therefor under section 66;

(i) the procedure of investigation of an offence and the manner and period of detention of persons under section 70;

(j) the manner of making the report by the commanding officer in respect of delay in convening Force Court under section 71;

(k) the authority to appoint the court of inquiry and the manner of appointment thereof under section 74;

(l) the manner of convening Force Courts under section 76;

(m) the persons by whom an accused may be defended in a trial and appearance of such persons under section 91;

(n) the recruitment and conditions of service of the Judge Attorney-General, Deputy Judge Attorney-General, Additional Judge Attorney-General and Judge Attorney under section 95;

(o) the officer to annul proceedings of the Force Court under section 132; and

(p) any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed, or in respect of which provision is to be, or may be, made by the rules.

(3) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

156. (1) The Sashastra Seema Bal in existence at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the Force constituted under this Act. Provisions as to existing Sashastra Seema Bal.

(2) The members of the Sashastra Seema Bal in existence at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed or, as the case may be, enrolled as such under this Act.

(3) Anything done or any action taken before the commencement of this Act in relation to the constitution of the Sashastra Seema Bal referred to in sub-section (1), in relation to any person appointed or enrolled, as the case may be, thereto, shall be as valid and as effective in law as if such thing or action was done or taken under this Act:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall render any person guilty of any offence in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him before the commencement of this Act.

Sub-section (i)]

Ministry of Home Affairs

Notification

New Delhi, the 31st July, 2009.

G.S.R.560(E):- In exercise of the powers conferred by section 155 of the Sashastra Seema Bal Act, 2007 (53 of 2007), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely :-

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, commencement and application . (1) These rules may be called the Sashastra Seema Bal Rules, 2009.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

(3) These rules shall apply to all persons subject to the Act:

Provided that the provisions of Chapter IV thereof shall not apply to persons belonging to the All India Services and other Government servants who are on deputation with the Sashastra Seema Bal :

Provided further that the officers on deputation shall have the option to get their trial or enquiry conducted either under the provisions of the Act and rules or the provisions of their respective service Act and rules being specific in nature.

2. Definitions . In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,

- (a) "Act" means the Sashastra Seema Bal Act, 2007 (53 of 2007) ;
- (b) "Appendix" means an Appendix annexed to these rules;
- (c) "Appointment" means appointment of a person to the Force and includes enrolment;
- (d) "Commandant" means a person appointed by the Central Government as a Commandant to the Force under section 5;
- (e) "Court" means the Force Court as defined in section 76 of the Act;
- (f) "Detachment" includes any part of a battalion or a unit of the Force required or ordered to proceed on duty away from headquarters;
- (g) "Force authority" when used in relation to any power, duty, act or matter, means such authority as, in pursuance of these rules exercises, or performs that power or duty or is concerned with that matter;

- (h) "section" means a section of the Act;
- (i) all other words and expressions used in these rules and not defined but defined in the Act, shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in the Act.

3. Reports and applications . Any report or application required to be made under these rules to a superior authority or to a Force authority shall be made in writing through proper channel unless the said authority on account of exigencies of service or otherwise, dispenses with the writing.

4. Forms of appendixes . (1) The Forms set forth in the appendixes, with such variations as the circumstances of each case may require, may be used for the respective purposes therein mentioned, and if used shall be sufficient, but a deviation from such Forms shall not, by reason only of such deviation, render invalid any charge, warrant, order, proceedings or any other document relevant to these rules.

(2) Any omission of any such Form shall not, by reason only of such omission, render any act or thing invalid.

(3) The directions in the notes to and the instructions in the Form shall be duly complied with in all cases to which they relate but any omission to comply with any such direction in the notes or instructions shall not, merely by reason of such omission, render any act or thing invalid.

Provided that this sub- rule (1) shall not apply;-

- (a) where the service is terminated on the ground of misconduct which has led to his conviction by a criminal court or a Force court; or
- (b) where the Central Government is satisfied that for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to give to the officer an opportunity of showing cause.

(2) When after considering the reports of an officer's misconduct, the Central Government or the Director -General is satisfied that the trial of the officer by a Force Court is inexpedient or impracticable, but is of the opinion, that the further retention of the said officer in the service is undesirable, the Director-General shall so inform the officer together with particulars of allegations and report of investigation (including the statement of witnesses, if any, recorded and copies of documents, if any, intended to be used against him) in cases where allegations have been investigated and he shall be called upon to submit in writing, his explanation and defence:

Provided that the Director-General may withhold disclosure of such report or portion thereof if, in his opinion, its disclosure is not in the interest of the security of the State.

(3) In the event of the explanation of the officer being considered unsatisfactory by the Director -General, or when so directed by the Central Government, the case shall be submitted to the Central Government with the officer's defence and the recommendation of the Director-General as to the termination of the Officer 's service in the manner specified in sub-rule (4).

(4) When submitting a case to the Central Government under the provisions of sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), the Director-General shall make his recommendation whether the officer's service should be terminated, and if so, whether the officer should be :

- (a) dismissed from the service; or
- (b) removed from the service; or
- (c) retired from the service; or
- (d) called upon to resign.

(5) The Central Government, after considering the reports and the officer's defence, if any, or the judgment of the criminal court, as the case may be, and the recommendation of the Director-General, may remove or dismiss the officer or retire or get his resignation from service, and on his refusing to do so, the officer may be compulsorily retired or removed from the service.

20. Termination of service of officers by the Central Government on grounds of unsuitability

(1) When the Director General is satisfied that an officer is unsuitable to be retained in service, the officer-

- (a) shall be so informed;
- (b) shall be furnished with the particulars of all matters adverse to him; and
- (c) shall be called upon to urge any reasons he may wish to put forward in favour of his retention in the service :

Provided that clauses (a) (b) and (c) shall not apply, if the Central Government is satisfied that for reasons, to be recorded by it in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions thereof:

Provided further that the Director-General may not furnish to the officer any matter adverse to him, if in his opinion, it is not in the interest of the security of the State to do so.

(2) In the event of the explanation being considered by the Director General unsatisfactory, the matter shall be submitted to the Central Government for orders, together with the officer's explanation and the recommendation of the Director-General.

(3) The Central Government after considering the reports, the explanation, if any, of the officer and the recommendation of the Director-General, may call upon the officer to retire or resign and on his refusing to do so, the officer may be compulsorily retired from the service.

21. Termination of service of persons, other than officers on account of misconduct . (1) When it is proposed to terminate the service of a person subject to the Act other than an officer, he shall be given an opportunity by the authority competent to dismiss or remove him to show cause in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) against such action:

Provided that this sub- rule shall not apply:-

- (a) where the service is terminated on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction by a criminal court or Force Court: or
- (b) where the authority as specified in rule 18 is satisfied that, for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to give the person concerned an opportunity of showing cause.

(2) When after considering the reports on the misconduct of the person concerned, the authority as specified in rule 18 is satisfied that the trial of such a person by the Force Court is inexpedient or impracticable, but is of the opinion, that his further retention in the service is undesirable, it shall so inform him together with all reports adverse to him and he shall be called upon to submit, in writing, his explanation and defence:

Provided that the authority as specified in rule 18 may withhold from disclosure any such report or portion thereof, if in his opinion, its disclosure is not in the interest of security of the state.

(3) The authority as specified in rule 18 after considering his explanation and defence, if any, or the judgment of the criminal court, as the case may be, may dismiss or remove him from the service.

(4) All cases of dismissal or removal, under this rule, shall be reported to the Director -General.

22. Discharge from service on grounds of unsatisfactory progress in training . (1) When it is proposed to discharge a person subject to the Act from service on account of unsatisfactory progress in training, the Commanding Officer of training establishment, where the person is undergoing training, shall make recommendation for suitable action to the Commanding Officer of the Battalion/Unit to which such person belongs for his discharge from service.

(2) In all cases of recommendations for discharge of a person, the Commanding Officer of the training establishment shall establish clearly the fact that the person has been given suitable warning and sufficient time to show progress, documentary evidence to this effect shall accompany the recommendation.

(3) The Central Government, or as the case may be, the authority as specified in rule 18, on receipt of recommendation under sub-rule (1), may discharge or release the person concerned from the service.

23. Termination of service on grounds of furnishing false or incorrect information at the time of appointment . The Central Government, or as the case may be, the authority as specified in rule 18, may terminate the service of a person subject to the Act on grounds of furnishing false or incorrect information at the time of appointment of that person in the service and a show cause notice giving one month's time shall be issued to the individual before termination of his service.

24. Retirement or discharge or release of officers on grounds of physical unfitness . (1) Where an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General considers that an officer of the Force is unfit to perform his duties because of his physical condition, the officer shall be brought before a medical board.

(2) The medical board shall consist of such officers and shall be constituted in such manner as may, from time to time, be laid down by the Director-General.

(3) Where the medical board considers the officer to be unfit for service, the Central Government shall, if it agrees with the findings of the medical board, communicate to the said officer the findings of the medical board and thereupon, within a period of thirty days of such communication, the officer may make a representation against it to the Central Government supported by a prima-facie evidence of error of judgment in the opinion expressed by the medical board and such an evidence shall be from a government doctor not below the status of civil surgeon and shall contain specific mention that he has taken into consideration the finding of the medical board before giving his opinion.

(4) The Central Government may, on receiving the representation from the officer, refer the case to be reviewed by a fresh medical board constituted for the purpose and order the retirement or discharge or release of the said officer if the decision of the fresh medical board is adverse to him.

25. Termination of service of subordinate officers by the authorities as specified in rule 18 on the grounds of unsuitability . (1) Where a Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant is satisfied that a subordinate officer is unsuitable to be retained in service, the subordinate officer shall be-

- (a) so informed;
- (b) furnished with the particulars of all matters adverse to him ; and
- (c) called upon to urge any reasons he may wish to put forward in favour of his retention in the service:

Provided that clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall not apply, if the authority as specified in rule 18, is satisfied that for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions thereof:

Provided further that such competent authority may not furnish to the subordinate officer any matter adverse to him, if in his opinion, it is not in the interest of the security of the state to do so.

(2) In the event of the explanation being considered by the Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant unsatisfactory, the matter shall be submitted to the authority as specified in rule 18 for orders together with the subordinate officer's explanation and the recommendation of such Commanding Officer.

(3) The authority as prescribed in rule 18 after considering the report and the explanation, if any, of the subordinate officer and the recommendations of the Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant, may call upon the subordinate officer to retire or resign and on, his refusing to do so, the subordinate officer may be compulsorily retired or discharged from the service.

26. Termination of service of enrolled persons on the grounds of unsuitability . Where a Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant is satisfied that an enrolled person is unsuitable to be retained in the Force, the enrolled person shall be-

- (a) so informed;
- (b) furnished with the particulars of all matter adverse to him; and
- (c) called upon to urge any reasons he may wish to put forward in favour of his retention in the service:

Provided that clauses (a) (b) and (c) shall not apply, if the Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant is satisfied that for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions thereof;

Provided further that such competent authority may not furnish to the enrolled person any matter adverse to him, if in his opinion, it is not in the interest of the security of the state to do so.

(2) After considering the explanation, if any, the Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant, may call upon the enrolled person to retire or resign and on his refusing to do so, the enrolled person may be compulsorily retired or discharged from the service.

27. Retirement or discharge of subordinate officers and enrolled persons on grounds of physical unfitness . (1) Where a Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant is satisfied that a subordinate officer or an enrolled person is unable to perform his duties by reason of any physical disability, he may direct that the said subordinate officer or enrolled person, as the case may be, be brought before a medical board.

(2) The medical board shall consist of such officers and shall be constituted in such manner as may, from time to time, be laid down by the Director-General.

(3) Where the said subordinate officer or the enrolled person is found by the medical board to be unfit for further service in the Force, as the case may be, the authority as specified in rule 18, if he agrees with the finding of the medical board, communicate to the said person the findings of the medical board and thereupon, within a period of thirty days of such communication, the person may make a representation against it to the competent authority supported by a prima-facie evidence of error of judgement in the opinion expressed by the medical board and such an evidence shall be from a government doctor not below the status of Civil Surgeon and shall contain specific mention that he has taken into consideration the findings of the medical board before giving his opinion.

(4) Where the person declared to be unfit for further service makes a representation under sub-rule (3), the same shall be forwarded to the next superior officer, who shall have the case referred to be reviewed by a fresh medical board, which shall be constituted in such manner as may from time to time, be laid down by the Director-General.

The superior officer may, having regard to the findings of the fresh medical board, pass such order as he may deem fit.

(5) Where no representation is made against the decision of the medical board under sub-rule (3), the authority as specified in rule 18, as the case may be, may (if he agrees with the findings of the medical board) order the retirement or discharge of person declared to be unfit for further service in the Force.

28. Resignation . (1) The Central Government may, having regard to the special circumstances of any case, permit any officer of the Force to resign from the Force before completing the term of engagement :

Provided that while granting such permission the Central Government may, require the officer to refund to the Government such amount as would constitute the cost of training given to that officer or three months pay and allowances, whichever is higher.

Provided further that an officer of the Force tendering resignation, for accepting a job under the Central or State Governments or local bodies, after having been granted cadre clearance for the same or who has completed ten years of service shall not be required to refund the sum as provided here in above.

(2) The Central Government may accept the resignation under sub-rule (1) with effect from such date as it may consider expedient.

(3) The Central Government may refuse to permit an officer to resign,-

- (a) if an emergency has been declared in the country either due to internal disturbance or external aggression ; or
- (b) if it considers it to be inexpedient so to do in the interest of the discipline of the Force; or
- (c) if the officer has specifically undertaken to serve for a specified period and such period has not expired.

(4) The provisions of this rule shall apply to and in relation to subordinate officers and enrolled persons as they apply to and in relation to any officer of the Force and the powers vested in the Central Government under sub-rule (1) and (2) shall be exercised in the case of a Subedar -Major or Inspector by an Inspector-General, in the case of a Sub-Inspector /or Assistant Sub-Inspector by an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector -General and in the case of an under officer or enrolled person by a Commandant.

29. Appeal against orders of dismissal, removal or retirement . A person subject to the Act other than an officer who has been dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired from service, shall have the right to put in an appeal against the termination of his service to any of the authority, higher than the one who has passed the termination order within ninety days of the termination of service.

(2) In the case of officers, appeal shall lie to the Central Government and such appeal shall be filed within ninety days of the termination of service.

(3) Where the appellate authority sets aside the order of dismissal, removal or retirement under this rule, such authority shall pass such orders as may be necessary in respect of the period of absence from duty of the person whose dismissal , removal or retirement has been set aside.

30. Date of dismissal, removal, discharge or retirement . The effective date of dismissal , removal, discharge or retirement shall be :-

- (a) the date mentioned in the order of dismissal or removal or discharge or retirement, or
- (b) if no such date is mentioned, the date on which the person concerned is relieved from duties.

(2) The dismissal, removal, discharge or retirement of a person subject to the Act shall not be from retrospective effect .

CHAPTER V ARREST AND SUSPENSION

31. Forms of arrest . (1) Arrest may be either open or close arrest.

(2) An arrest, unless otherwise specified , shall mean an open arrest.

(3) An order imposing arrest may be communicated to the person to be arrested either orally or in writing.

32. Authority to order arrest . (1) No person subject to the Act shall be arrested on a charge under the Act except under and in accordance with the orders of a superior officer having power of command over him.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) any person subject to the Act may be placed under arrest by any superior officer:-

- (a) if he commits an offence against such superior officer ; or
- (b) if he commits an offence in the view of such superior officer, or
- (c) if he is behaving in a disorderly manner and the said superior officer considers it necessary to place such a person under arrest with a view to stop such disorderly behaviour.

(3) A superior officer effecting arrest under sub-rule (2) shall as soon as possible, and in any case within twenty four hours of such arrest send a report to the Commanding Officer of the battalion or unit of which the person arrested is a member and in case of the arrest of an officer of and above the rank of Commandant, to his immediate superior officer.

33. Arrest, how imposed . (A) Close arrest .- (1)(a) Close arrest in the case of enrolled persons shall be imposed by informing the person to be arrested and ordering him to be marched to the place of confinement under an escort of person of similar or superior rank.

(b) Where no such escort is available the person arrested shall be ordered to report himself immediately to the quarter guard or other place of confinement.

(2)(a) Close arrest in the case of officers, subordinate officers and under officers, shall be imposed by placing such officer, subordinate officer or under officer under the custody of another person of similar or superior rank and wherever considered necessary such officer, subordinate officer, or under officer may be confined under charge of a guard.

(b) The person under arrest shall not leave the place of his confinement without permission of his Commanding officer or a superior officer designated by the Commanding Officer in this behalf.

(B) Open arrest . (3) (a) Open arrest shall be imposed by informing the person to be arrested that he is under open arrest and that he shall confine himself within such limits as may be specified in this behalf by the concerned superior officer effecting such arrest.

(b) The Commanding Officer may, from time to time, vary the limits referred to in clause (a) above.

34. Release from arrest during investigation . Any person arrested under rule 32 may be released from arrest under the order of an officer :

Provided that in case of a person placed under arrest by an officer, such person shall be released from arrest under the order of an officer superior to the officer ordering arrest.

35. Release without prejudice to re-arrest . Pending the completion of the investigation or convening of a Court, any person, who has been placed under arrest, may without prejudice to re-arrest be released by his Commanding Officer or by any officer superior to such Commanding Officer .

36. Arrest , when to be imposed . (1) Any person charged with:

- (i) an offence under section 16 or clause (a) or clause (b) of section 18 or section 19 or section 22 or sub section (1) of section 23;
- (ii) a civil offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life;
- (iii) any other offence under the Act-

- (a) if the interest of discipline so require; or
- (b) if the person concerned deliberately undermines discipline; or
- (c) if the person concerned is of violent disposition; or
- (d) if the person concerned is likely to absent himself with a view to avoid trial; or

- (e) if the person concerned is likely to interfere with witnesses or tamper with evidence; shall be placed under arrest.

(2) Where any person arrested shows symptoms of sickness, medical assistance shall be provided for such person.

37. Special provision in case of arrest of an intoxicated person

(1) Where an intoxicated person has been arrested, he shall, as far as possible, be confined separately and shall be visited by duty officer or duty subordinate officer or duty under officer or under officer in-charge of the guard, once in every two hours.

(2) An intoxicated person shall not be taken before a superior officer for investigation of his case until he has become sober.

38. Arrest in case of persons whose trial has been ordered

(1) Unless the convening officer has otherwise directed, on the commencement of the trial of a person by the Court, the said person shall be placed under arrest by his commanding Officer and shall remain under arrest during the trial.

(2) Where a sentence lower than that of imprisonment is passed by a Court, the arrested person may be released by his Commanding Officer pending confirmation of the finding and sentence:

Provided that the convening officer may rescind, vary or modify the order passed by a Commanding Officer under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) and where no such order is passed by a Commanding Officer, the convening officer may pass such order as it may deem proper :

Provided further that a person who has been sentenced to be dismissed shall not, except while on active duty, be put on any duty.

39. Delay Report . (1) (a) The report on reason for delay as required under section 71 of the Act shall be in the Form set out in Appendix II and it shall be sent by the Commanding Officer to the Deputy Inspector-General under whom the accused may be serving.

(b) A copy of the eighth delay report and every succeeding report thereof shall also be sent to the Inspector-General under whom the accused may be serving.

(2) Where the accused is kept under arrest for a period exceeding three months without being brought to trial, a special report regarding the action taken and the reasons for the delay shall be sent by the Commanding Officer to the Director-General with a copy each to the Deputy Inspector-General and the Inspector-General concerned.

40. Rights of a person under arrest . (1) (a) Any person placed under arrest shall, at the time of being placed under arrest, be given in writing by the officer effecting the arrest of the particulars of the charges against him.

b) The said particulars shall be rendered in simple language and also explained to the accused.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), where during the investigation other offences committed by the accused are discovered, it shall be lawful to charge such person with those offences.

(2) (a) The duty officer or duty subordinate officer shall every day make a visit to the person under arrest and take the orders of the Commanding Officer on any request or representation made by the person under arrest.

(b) The request or representation made by the person under arrest shall be entered in the Form set out in Appendix III.

41. Suspension . (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the appointing authority or any other authority empowered in that behalf by the President by general or special order, may, at its discretion, place a person serving under him, under suspension in the following circumstances, namely :-

- (i) where disciplinary action under the Act against him is contemplated or is pending; or
- (ii) where in the opinion of the authority aforesaid, he has engaged himself in activities prejudicial to the interest of the security of the State; or
- (iii) where a case against him in respect of any civil offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial:

Provided that the Director-General may exercise the power of suspension in respect of officers of the Force up to the rank of Deputy Commandant.

Provided further that the Director-General shall report the facts of each case immediately to the Central Government and all such orders of suspension shall be void ab-initio unless confirmed by the Central Government within a period of one-month from the date of the said orders, irrespective of the fact that the suspension is revoked by the said authority within that period.

(2) A person subject to the Act shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the appointing authority:

- (i) with effect from the date of his detention by civil police on a criminal charge or otherwise for a period exceeding forty eight hours, or
 - (ii) with effect from the date of his conviction by a criminal court on a criminal charge, if the sentence awarded is imprisonment for a term exceeding forty eight hours.
- (3) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the authority competent to do so.
- (4) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule, may, at any time, be modified or revoked, by the authority which made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.
- (5) During the period of suspension powers vested in a person shall be in abeyance, but he shall be subject to same responsibilities, discipline, penalties and all other conditions of service to which he would have been subject if he was on duty and cannot leave headquarters declared by the competent authority without prior permission.
- (6) When a person remains under suspension for more than ninety days, a report giving reasons for delay in the finalisation of his case shall be submitted to the Director-General by the Commanding Officer of the accused, and thereafter, subsequent reports shall be submitted every month till the case is finalised or the order of suspension is revoked, whichever is earlier.

CHAPTER VI

CHOICE OF JURISDICTION BETWEEN FORCE COURT AND CRIMINAL COURT

42. Trial of cases either by Force Court or criminal court . (1) Where an offence is triable both by a criminal court and a Force Court, an officer referred to in section 92 may,

- (i) (a) where the offence is committed by the accused in the course of the performance of his duty as a member of the Force; or
 - (b) where the offence is committed in relation to property belonging to the Government or the Force, or a person subject to the Act; or
 - (c) where the offence is committed against a person subject to the Act, direct that any person subject to the Act who is alleged to have committed such an offence, be tried by a Force Court; and
- (ii) in any other case, decide whether or not it would be necessary in the interests of discipline to claim for trial by a Force Court any person subject to the Act who is alleged to have committed such an offence.

(2) In taking a decision to claim an offender for trial by a Force Court an officer referred to in section 92 may take into account all or any of the following factors, namely:-

- (a) the offender is on active duty or has been warned for active duty and it is felt that he is trying to avoid such duty;
- (b) the offender is a young person under going training the offence is not a serious one and the trial of the offender by a criminal court would materially affect his training;
- (c) The offender can, in view of the nature of the case, be dealt with summarily under the Act.

43. Cases which may not be tried by Force Court . Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 42, an offender may not normally be claimed for trial by a Force Court,

- (a) where the offence is committed by him along with any other person not subject to the Act whose identity is known;
- (b) where the offence is committed by him while on leave or during absence without leave; or
- (c) where the offence is committed by him which has no relation with the performance of his duty.

CHAPTER VII INVESTIGATION AND SUMMARY DISPOSAL

44. Statement of allegations . Where it is alleged that a person subject to the Act has committed an offence punishable under the Act, the allegation shall be reduced to writing in the Form set out in Appendix IV in the case of persons of and below the rank of Head Constable and in the Form set out in Appendix V in the case of officers and subordinate officers.

45. Hearing by an officer not below the rank of Assistant Commandant . (1) (a) In the case of a person, subject to the Act, other than an officer and a subordinate officer, the case may, in the first instance, be heard by an officer not below the rank of Assistant Commandant;

- (b) the witnesses shall be heard in the presence of the accused who shall have the right to cross examine them;
- (c) the accused shall have the right to call witnesses in defence and to make a statement.

(2) After hearing the accused under sub-rule (1), such officer may award any punishment which he is empowered to award, or dismiss the charge

when the charge is not proved, or refer the case for disposal by the Commanding Officer :

Provided that he shall not dispose of the case which has been reserved by the Commanding Officer for disposal by himself or if the accused is under close arrest.

46. Hearing by the Commanding Officer. (1) The Commanding Officer of and above the rank of Commandant may hear the charge against the persons under his command in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 45 and may;

- (i) award any punishment which he is empowered to award in respect of persons of and below the rank of Head Constable; or
- (ii) dismiss the charge; or
- (iii) remand the case for preparing a record of evidence or an abstract of evidence against the accused; or
- (iv) in the case of an accused of and below the rank of a Head-Constable remand the accused for trial by Summary Force Court;

Provided that:

- (a) in the case of an officer, the evidence of witnesses shall be reduced to writing if he so demands;
- (b) the Commanding Officer shall dismiss the charge, if in his opinion, the charge is not proved or may dismiss it if he considers that because of the previous character of the accused and the nature of the charge; against him, it is not advisable to proceed further with it and in case of an officer, he shall record reasons for dismissing the charge;
- (c) where a case in respect of an officer has been referred to the Commanding Officer by a superior authority for initiation of disciplinary action, the Commanding Officer shall not dismiss the charge without reference to such authority;
- (d) in case of all offences punishable with death, a record of evidence shall be prepared.

(2) Where the Commanding Officer is of the opinion that the charge against an officer or a subordinate officer is of a serious nature, he may, without hearing the charge in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1), straightaway order a record of evidence or an abstract of evidence to be prepared in the case.

(3) Where the Commanding Officer is of the opinion that the charge against an officer or a subordinate officer does not deserve to be dismissed, and the charge is also not so serious as may warrant trial by a Force Court, he may, in the case of a subordinate officer, either dispose of the case himself or refer it to the appropriate authority for disposal under the provisions of section 58 and in the case of an officer, he may refer the case to the appropriate authority for summary disposal under the provisions of section 58.

(4) Where disciplinary action is intended to be taken against a Commanding Officer of a battalion or a unit, or a headquarters, such officer shall be removed from the command of the battalion, the unit, or the headquarters, as the case may be, and for the purpose, shall be attached to or posted to a battalion, unit or a headquarters under the command of an officer senior to the officer to be so attached or posted.

47. Procedure for summary disposal of charge against officers.

(1) Where an officer is remanded for the summary disposal of a charge against him, he shall be provided substance of evidence available against him or a copy of the record or abstract of evidence, if prepared, along with a copy of the charge-sheet as soon as practicable and in any case not less than twenty four hours before the commencement of the proceedings.

(2) The officer dealing with the case under section 58 shall, unless the accused has consented in writing to dispense with the attendance of witnesses, hear the evidence in the presence of the accused who shall have the right to cross examine witnesses and the accused shall have the right to call any witness and make a statement in his defence.

(3) Proceedings shall be recorded as far as practicable in accordance with the Form in Appendix XIV, and in every case in which the punishment is awarded, the proceedings along with substance of evidence or record or abstract of evidence as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the next higher authority through the Judge Attorney-General or any officer authorised by him who may, if the punishment awarded appears to him to be illegal, unjust, excessive or inadequate, vary or remit the punishment or set aside the proceedings or enhance the punishment, or make such other directions as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that before enhancing the punishment the accused shall be given an opportunity to show cause why his punishment should not be enhanced.

(4) An officer who considers himself aggrieved by any decision given under this rule, may submit one petition through his Commanding Officer, within one month of the disposal of the case, to the Director General who may pass such order or direction as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

48. Summary disposal of charges against subordinate officer . (1)

Where a subordinate officer is charged with an offence under the Act, he shall be dealt with by the authority empowered under Section 58 in the same manner as nearly as circumstances admit, as provided in rule 47.

(2) Proceedings shall be recorded as soon as practicable in accordance with the Form in Appendix XIV and in every case in which the punishment is awarded, the proceedings alongwith substance of evidence or record or abstract of evidence, as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the next higher authority through the Judge Attorney-General or any officer authorised by him who may, if the punishment awarded appears to him to be illegal, unjust, excessive or inadequate vary or remit the punishment or set-aside the proceedings or enhance the punishment or make such other directions as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that before enhancing the punishment the accused shall be given an opportunity to show cause why his punishment should not be enhanced.

(3) An subordinate officer who considers himself aggrieved by any decision given under this rule, may submit one petition through his Commanding Officer, within one month of the disposal of the case, to the authority superior to the one who awarded the punishment, and such authority may pass such order or direction as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case

49. Attachment to another Unit . The Commanding officer shall not deal with any case:

- (i) where the offence with which the accused is charged is against the Commanding officer himself, or
- (ii) where the Commanding Officer is himself a witness in the case against the accused, or
- (iii) where the Commanding Officer is otherwise personally interested in the case.

The accused shall be attached to another battalion or unit or a headquarter for disposal of the case under the order of the competent authority:

Provided that a Commanding Officer shall not be disqualified from hearing a charge merely because the offence was committed against the property of a Force mess, band or institution of which the Commanding Officer is a member or trustee or because the offence is one of disobedience of such Commanding Officer's orders.

50. Charges not to be dealt with summarily . A charge for an offence under section 16 or clauses (a) and (b) of section 18 or section 19 or clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 20 or clause (a) of section 22 or clause (a) of section

27 or section 49 (other than that for simple hurt or theft) or a charge for abetment of or an attempt to commit any of these offences, shall not be dealt with summarily.

51. Record of evidence . (1) The officer ordering the record of evidence may either prepare the record of evidence himself or detail another officer to do so.

(2) The witnesses shall give their evidence in the presence of the accused and the accused shall have right to cross examine all witnesses who give evidence against him:

Provided that where statement of any witness at a court of inquiry is available, examination of such a witness may be dispensed with and the original copy of the said statement may be taken on record and a copy thereof shall be given to the accused and he shall have the right to cross-examine if he was not afforded an opportunity to cross-examine the witness at the Court of Inquiry:

Provided further that If a person subject to the Act absconds or deserts the force after commission of offences under Sections 16, 17, 19, 20 and offence of murder punishable under Section 49 of the Act and there is no immediate prospect of his apprehension, the officer detailed to prepare the record of evidence shall examine the witnesses in the absence of the accused and such evidence may, on the apprehension of such accused, be given in evidence against him at the trial by a Security Force Court, even if such witness is dead or incapable of giving evidence or cannot be found or his presence cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expenses or inconvenience which, under the circumstances of the case would be unreasonable.

(3) After all the witnesses against the accused have been examined, he shall be cautioned in the following terms; "You may make a statement if you wish to do so, you are not bound to make one and whatever you state shall be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence". After having been cautioned in the aforesaid manner whatever the accused states shall be taken down in writing.

(4) The accused may call witnesses in defence and the officer recording the evidence may ask any question that may be necessary to clarify the evidence given by such witnesses.

(5) All witnesses shall give evidence on oath or affirmation:

provided that no oath or affirmation shall be given to the accused nor shall he be cross examined.

(6) (a) The statements given by witnesses shall ordinarily be recorded in narrative form and the officer recording the evidence may, at the request of the accused, permit any portion of the evidence to be recorded in the form of question and answer.

(b) The witnesses shall sign their statements after the same have been read over and explained to them.

(7) The provision of section 101 shall apply for procuring the attendance of witnesses before the officer preparing the record of evidence and the witnesses shall be summoned as per Forms given in Appendix XV.

(8) Where a witness cannot be compelled to attend or is not available or his attendance cannot be procured without an undue wastage of time or expenditure of money and after the officer recording the evidence has given a certificate in this behalf, a written statement signed by such witness may be read to the accused and included in the record of evidence.

(9) After the recording of evidence is completed the officer recording the evidence shall give a certificate in the following Form:

Certified that the record of evidence ordered by..... was made in the presence and hearing of the accused and the provisions of rule 51 have been complied with.

(10) No counsel or legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear before the officer making the record of evidence.

52. Abstract of evidence . (1) An abstract of evidence shall be prepared either by the Commanding officer or an officer detailed by him.

(2) (a) The abstract of evidence, shall include:

- (i) signed statements of witnesses wherever available or a précis thereof, and
 - (ii) copies of all documents intended to be produced at the trial.
- (b) where signed statements of any witnesses are not available, a précis of the evidence that the witnesses are likely to give shall be included.

(3) A copy of the abstract of evidence shall be given by the officer making the same available to the accused and the accused shall be given an opportunity to make a statement if he so desires after he has been cautioned in the manner laid down in sub-rule (3) of rule 51:

provided that the accused shall be given such time as may be reasonable in the circumstances but in no case less than twenty four hours after receiving the abstract of evidence to make his statement:

53. Investigation of cases by Police . Where the commanding officer considers it necessary so to do, he may lodge a report with the Police for investigation of any case.

54. Disposal of case by Commanding Officer after record or abstract of evidence . (1) Where an officer has been detailed to prepare the record of evidence or to make an abstract thereof he shall forward the same to the Commanding Officer.

(2) The Commanding Officer may, after going through the record or abstract of evidence prepared by him or by another officer,-

- (i) remand the case for recording additional evidence, if required; or
- (ii) dismiss the charge provided that where disciplinary action has been initiated against an officer on a reference from a superior authority, the charge shall not be dismissed without reference to such an authority, or
- (iii) rehear the charge and award one of the Summary /minor punishments; or
- (iv) try the accused summarily under section 56 or by a Summary Force Court where he is empowered to do so; or
- (v) remand the case for summary disposal by the competent authority in the case of an officer or a subordinate officer; or
- (vi) apply to a competent officer or authority to convene a Court for the trial of the accused .

55. Application for a Court . An application for a Court shall, as far as possible be made by the Commanding Officer in the Form set out in Appendix VI and shall be accompanied by five copies of the record or abstract of evidence and charge-sheet and such other documents as are mentioned in that application form.

CHAPTER VIII ON CHARGES AND MATTERS ANTECEDENT TO TRIAL

56. Charge-sheet . (1) A charge sheet shall contain the whole of the issue or issues to be tried one time and may contain more than one charge, if the charges are founded on the same facts or for m part of a series of offences of same or similar character;

Provided that a charge under sections 20, 21, 32 and 35 may be included in any charge sheet, notwithstanding that other charges in that charge-sheet are not founded on the same facts or do not form part of a series of offences of the same or similar character.

(2) Every charge sheet shall, as far as possible be prepared as per Form set out in Appendix V.

57. Charges . (1) There shall be a separate charge for each offence.

(2)(a) If a single act or series of acts is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences, the facts which can be proved, will constitute, the accused may be charged with having committed all or any of such offences, and any number of such charges may be tried at once or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed some one of the said offences.

(b) The charge for the more serious offence shall precede the one for the less serious offence.

(3) Each charge shall consist of two parts, namely:
(a) statement of the offence, and
(b) particulars of the offence.

(4) The offence shall be stated, if not a civil offence, as merely as practicable, in the words of the Act, and if a civil offence, in such words as would be sufficient to describe that offence.

(5) (a) The particulars shall state the time and place of the alleged offence and the person (if any) against whom, or the thing (if any), in respect of which it was committed and these should be sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is so charged.

(b) In case such particulars are not sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged, the charge shall also contain such particulars of the manner in which the offence was committed as will be sufficient for that purpose.

58. Joint Charges . (1) Any number of accused may be charged jointly and tried together for an offence averred to have been committed jointly by them.

(2) Any number of accused though not charged jointly may also be tried together for an offence averred to have been committed by one or more of them and abetted by other or others.

(3) Where the accused are so charged under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), any one or more of them may be charged with, and tried for, any other offence with which they could have been charged under sub-rule (1) of rule 56.

59. Validity of charge-sheet . A charge-sheet shall not be invalid merely by reasons of the fact that, it contains any mistake in the name or description of the accused, and in the construction of a charge sheet there shall be presumed in favour of supporting it every proposition which may reasonably be presumed to be impliedly, included, though not expressed therein, and the statement of the offence and the particulars of the offence shall be read and construed together.

60. Amendment of the charge by the Force Court . (1) At any time during a trial, if it appears to the Court that there is in the charge-sheet,

- (a) a mistake in the name or description of the accused; or
- (b) a mistake which is attributable to a clerical error or omission, the Court may amend the charge-sheet so as to correct the mistake.

(2) If at any time during a trial, at which there is a Judge Attorney, it appears to the Court, before it closes to deliberate on its findings, that it is desirable in the interest of justice to make any addition to, omission from or alteration in, a charge which cannot be made under sub-rule (1), it may, if such addition, omission, or alteration can be made without unfairness to the accused, and with the concurrence of the Judge Attorney, so amend the charge sheet.

(3) If at any time during a trial, at which there is no Judge Attorney, it appears to the Court, before it closes to deliberate on its findings, that in the interest of justice, it is desirable to make any addition to, omission from or alteration in a charge, which cannot be made under sub-rule (1), it may adjourn and report its opinion to the convening officer, who may :

- (a) amend the charge if permissible under this rule and direct the Court to try it as amended after due notice of the amendment has been given to the accused; or
- (b) direct the Court to proceed with the trial of the charge without amending it; or
- (c) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

61. Amendment of Charge by Convening Officer . When a Force Court reports to the convening officer either under rule 60 or rule 76 he may amend the charge in respect of which the Court has reported to him, by making any addition to, omission from or alteration in the charge which, in his opinion, is desirable in the interest of justice and which he is satisfied can be made without unfairness to the accused .

62. Action by a Superior Authority on receiving an application for convening a Court. (1) As soon as a superior officer receives an application for convening a court, he shall scrutinise the charge and the evidence against the accused, where necessary, in consultation with the Judge Attorney -General or an officer detailed for the purpose, by the Judge Attorney -General and he,

- (i) shall direct the Commanding Officer to dismiss the charge where the evidence against the accused is insufficient and further evidence is not likely to be available and may direct him to do so if he considers it inadvisable to proceed with the trial; or
- (ii) may return the case to the Commanding Officer for being tried by a Summary Force Court or being dealt with summarily if he considers that the same can be adequately so tried or dealt with; or
- (iii) may dispose of the case administratively and if he is not competent to do so, may forward the case to higher authority with his recommendation; or
- (iv) may return the case for recording further evidence, if he considers the evidence recorded insufficient but considers that further evidence may be available.

(2) (a) In any other case he may either himself convene a Court or if he considers that a higher type of Court should be convened, and he is not empowered to convene such a Court, forward the case to a higher authority with recommendation that, such Court may be convened .

(b) The higher authority on receiving the case may exercise any of the powers given in sub-rule (1):

Provided that a superior officer or higher authority before convening a General Force Court or a Petty Force Court shall take the advice of the Judge Attorney-General or an officer detailed for the purpose of the Judge Attorney General:

Provided further that the superior authority or higher authority while convening a Court may reframe the charge sheet on which the accused is to be tried.

63. Disqualification of officers for serving on General and Petty Force Courts . An Officer shall be disqualified from serving on a Court, if he,

- (i) is an officer who convened the court; or
- (ii) is the prosecutor or a witness for the prosecution; or
- (iii) has taken any part in the investigation of the case, which would have necessitated applying his mind to any part of the evidence or to the facts of the case; or
- (iv) is the Commanding Officer of the accused , Deputy Inspector-General or the under whose command the unit in which the accused was serving at the time the alleged offence was committed; or
- (v) has a personal interest in the case.

64. Composition of General and Petty Force Courts . (1) A Court shall consist as far as practicable, of officers of different units.

(2) The members of a Court for the trial of an officer shall be of a rank not lower than the rank of that officer, unless in the opinion of the convening officer, officers of such rank are not, having due regard to the exigencies of public service, available and such opinion shall be recorded in the convening order.

65. Duties of convening officer when convening courts . When an officer convenes a Court he shall-

- (a) issue a convening order in the appropriate Form set out in Appendix-VII;
- (b) direct upon what charges the accused is to be tried and ensure that the accused has been remanded for trial by a Court upon these charges, by his Commanding Officer;
- (c) if he is of the opinion that charges shall be put in separate charge sheets, so direct and shall also direct the order in which they are to be tried;
- (d) direct, if there is more than one accused whether the accused are to be tried jointly or separately;
- (e) appoint members of the Court and any waiting members;
- (f) If convening a General Force Court, or a Petty Force Court which he considers should be attended by the Judge Attorney, take the necessary steps to procure the appointment of Judge Attorney by or on behalf of the Judge Attorney-General and may also appoint an officer to be under his instructions at the trial;
- (g) appoint an officer, subject to the Act or a counsel assigned by such an officer to prosecute:

Provided that the convening officer may appoint more than one such officer or counsel to prosecute if he thinks fit;

- (h) appoint an interpreter wherever necessary;
- (i) send to the senior member the charge-sheet, the convening order a copy of the record or abstract of evidence from which any evidence which in his opinion would be inadmissible at the trial, has been expurgated;
- (j) forward to each member of the Court and to each waiting member a copy of charge sheet and the convening order;
- (k) forward to the prosecutor copies of the charge-sheet and convening order and the original record or abstract of evidence together with an unexpurgated copy thereof showing the passages (if any) which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;

- (l) for ward to the Judge Attorney (if any) copies of the charge sheet and convening order and an unexpurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence showing the passages (if any) which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;
- (m) ensure that the Commanding Officer has summoned all the prosecution witnesses and such defence witnesses as the accused may have requested to be summoned under rule 67.

66. Preparation of defence by the accused . (1) An accused , who has been remanded for trial, shall be afforded proper opportunity for preparing his defence and shall be allowed proper communication with his defending officer or counsel and with his witnesses.

(2) A defending officer, as far as possible of the choice of the accused , shall be appointed to defend an accused who has been remanded for trial unless the accused states in writing that he does not wish such an appointment to be made.

(3) If the prosecution is to be undertaken by a legally qualified officer or by a counsel the accused shall be notified of this fact in sufficient time to enable him, if he so desires, to make arrangements for a legally qualified officer or counsel to defend him.

(4) As soon as practicable after a decision has been taken to place the accused on trial and in any case not less than four days before his trial he shall be given:

- (a) a copy of the charge-sheet;
- (b) an unexpurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence showing the passages (if any) within, which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;
- (c) notice of any additional evidence which the prosecution intends to adduce; and
- (d) if the accused so requires, a list of the ranks, names, and units of the members who are to form the Court and of any waiting members.

(5) When an accused is given a copy of the charge-sheet and of the record or abstract of evidence in accordance with this rule, he shall:

- (a) have the charge explained to him; and
- (b) be informed that, upon his making a written request to his Commanding Officer not less than twenty four hours before his trial requiring the attendance at his trial of a witness (other than a witness for the prosecution) whom he desires to call in his defence (such witness to be named by him), reasonable steps will be taken in accordance with these rules to procure the attendance of any such witness at his trial.

(6) The provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3) shall not apply in relation to a trial before a Summary Force Court and in relation to such a trial the period of four days referred to in sub-rule (4) shall be construed as twenty four hours.

67. Summoning of defence witnesses . (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3), the Commanding Officer shall, on a request made in this behalf by the accused, summon such witnesses as are specified by the accused.

(2) Where the Commanding Officer is satisfied that the evidence to be given by any witness is not likely to be of material assistance at the trial, he may refuse to summon such witness and while doing so shall record in writing the reasons for not calling the witness.

(3) The Commanding Officer may, before summoning any witness, require the accused to defray or undertake to defray the cost of attendance of such witness and if the accused refuses to defray or undertake to defray the cost aforesaid, the Commanding Officer may refuse to procure the attendance of that witness.

(4) Where the Commanding Officer has refused to summon the witness under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), the accused may make an application to the Court for the summoning of such witness and the Court may, if it considers it to be expedient in the interests of justice, order the summoning of such witness and, if necessary, adjourn the proceedings for the attendance of such witness and for summoning witnesses, summons as per Form given in Appendix XV shall be issued.

CHAPTER IX PROCEDURE FOR GENERAL AND PETTY FORCE COURTS

68. Assembly and swearing of Court. -(1) Upon a Force Court assembling, the Court shall, before beginning the trial, satisfy itself in closed Court.

- (a) that the Court has been convened in accordance with the Act and these rules;
- (b) that the Court consists of not less than the minimum number of officers required by law;
- (c) that the members are of the required rank;
- (d) that the members have been duly appointed and are not disqualified under the Act;
- (e) that if there is a Judge Attorney, he has been duly appointed;
- (f) that the accused appears, from the charge-sheet, to be subject to the Act and to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court; and

(g) that each charge is correct in law and framed in accordance with these rules.

(2(a) Where a vacancy occurs through a member of the Court being disqualified under the Act, or being absent when the Court assembles, the presiding officer may appoint a duly qualified waiting member to fill that vacancy.

(b) Where a vacancy occurs through a member of the court so require, substitute a duly qualified waiting member for a member appointed by the convening officer.

(3) If the Court is not satisfied on any of the matters mentioned in sub-rule (1) and is not competent to rectify, such matter itself under the Act or these rules, it shall, before commencing the trial, report thereon to the convening officer.

(4) When the Court has complied with this rule and is ready to proceed with the trial, the presiding officer shall open the Court and the trial shall begin.

69. Commencement of trial . (1) The order convening the Court and the names of the officers appointed to try the accused shall be read in the hearing of the accused who shall be given an opportunity to object to any of those officers in accordance with the provisions of section 96.

(2) When a Court is to try more than one accused whether separately or jointly, each accused shall be given an opportunity to object to any officer on the Court in accordance with sub-rule (1) and shall be asked separately whether he has any such objection.

(3) An accused shall state the names of all the officers to whom he objects before any objection is disposed of.

(4) If more than one officer is objected to, the objection to each officer shall be disposed of separately and the objection to the lowest in rank shall be disposed of first.

(5) An accused may make a statement and call any person to make a statement in support of his objection.

(6) An officer to whom the accused has objected may state in open Court any thing relevant to the objection of the accused whether in support or in rebuttal thereof.

(7) An objection to any officer shall be considered in closed Court by all the other officers of the Court and the officer objected to shall not be present at that time.

(8) When an objection to an officer is allowed under sub-section (3) of section 96 that officer shall forthwith retire and take no further part in the proceedings.

(9) When an officer objected to retires and there is duly qualified waiting member in attendance, the presiding officer shall immediately appoint him to take the place of the officer who has retired.

(10) The Court shall satisfy itself that a waiting member who takes the place of a member of the Court is of the required rank and not disqualified under the Act and shall give the accused an opportunity to object to him and shall deal with any such objection in accordance with the Act and these rules.

(11) If as the result of the allowing of an objection to a member there are insufficient officers available to form a Court in compliance with the provisions of the Act, the Court shall report to the convening officer without proceeding further with the trial and the convening officer may either appoint an officer as a member to fill the vacancy or convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

70. Swearing or affirming of members . As soon as the Court is constituted with the proper number of officers who are not objected to or objections in respect of whom have been overruled on oath or affirmation shall be administered to every member in presence of the accused in one of the following Forms or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be according to his religion or otherwise binding on his conscience.

(D) INTERPRETER

FORM OF OATH

I, ..., swear by Almighty God that I will faithfully, interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Court.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

I,..... ,.....do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will faithfully interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Court.

72. Objection to Interpreter or Shorthand Writer . A person shall not be sworn or affirmed as an interpreter or shorthand writer, if he is objected to by the accused unless the Court, after hearing the accused and the prosecutor, disallows such objections as being unreasonable.

73. Objection to Judge-Attorney and prosecutor . The accused shall not be permitted to object to the Judge Attorney or the prosecutor.

74. Arraignment . (1) When the Court and the Judge Attorney (if any) have been sworn, the charge will be read to the accused and he shall be asked whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to the charge or charges.

(2) If there is more than one charge against the accused he shall be required to plead separately to each charge.

(3) If there is more than one charge-sheet against the accused before the Court, the Court shall proceed with the charges in the first of such charge-sheets and shall announce its finding thereon and if the accused has pleaded guilty, comply with rule 81, before it arraigns him upon the charges in any subsequent charge-sheet.

75. Plea to jurisdiction . (1) The accused, before pleading to the charge, may offer a plea regarding the jurisdiction of the Court, and in such a case,

- (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of the plea and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto: and
- (b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the plea and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court allows the plea it shall adjourn and report to the convening officer.

(3) When the Court reports to the convening officer under this rule, the convening officer shall

- (a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the plea, dissolve the Court;
- (b) if he disapproves the decision of the Court; either ,
 - (i) refer the matter back to the Court and direct them to proceed with the trial; or
 - (ii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused .

76. Objection to the charge . (1) An accused before pleading may object to the charge framed against him on the grounds that it is not correct in law or is not framed in accordance with the provisions of these rules and if he does so, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the objection and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court' upholds the objection, it shall either amend the charge-sheet in accordance with the provisions of rule 60 or adjourn and report to the convening officer:

Provided that if there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court, the Court may, before adjourning proceed with the trial of the accused for such other charge or other charge-sheet.

(3) When the Court reports to the convening officer under sub-rule (2) the convening officer shall

(a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the objection,

- (i) dissolve the Court; or
- (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court which the Court has not tried, direct the Court to proceed with the trial or such other charge or charge-sheet only; or
- (iii) amend the charge to which the objection relates in accordance with the provisions of rule 61 and direct the Court to try the accused accordingly;

(b) if he disapproves the decision of the Court to allow the objection,

- (i) direct the Court to try the accused for the charge; or
- (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court to which the objection does not relate and which the Court has not tried, direct the Court to proceed with the trial of the accused for such other charge or charge-sheet only; or
- (iii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

77. Plea in bar of trial . (1) An accused before pleading to charge may offer a plea that the trial is barred under section 87 or section 88 and if he does so

- (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of the plea and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto, and
- (b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the plea and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court allows the plea it shall adjourn and report to the convening officer:

Provided that if there is another charge or another charge sheet before the Court, the Court may, before adjourning under this rule, proceed with the trial of the accused for such other charge or other charge-sheet.

(3) When a Court reports to the convening officer under this rule, the convening officer shall

- (a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the plea,
 - (i) dissolve the Court; or
 - (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court to which the plea does not relate and which the Court has not tried may direct the Court to proceed with the trial of the accused for such other charge or charge-sheet only.
- (b) If he disapproves the decision of the Court to allow the plea,
 - (i) direct the Court to try the accused for the charge; or
 - (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court, to which the plea does not relate and which the Court has not tried, direct the Court to proceed with the trial of the accused for such other charge or charge-sheet only; or
 - (iii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

78. Application for separate trial . (1) Where two or more accused are charged jointly, anyone of the accused may, before pleading to the charge, apply to the Court to be tried separately on the ground that he would be prejudiced in his defence if he were not tried separately.

(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that the interests of justice so require, it shall allow the application and try separately the accused who made it.

79. Application for trial on separate charge-sheet . (1) Where a charge-sheet contains more than one charge, the accused may, before pleading to the charges, apply to the Court to be tried separately on any charge in that charge-sheet on the ground that he would be prejudiced in his defence if he were not tried separately on that charge.

(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that interests of justice so require, it shall allow the application and try the accused separately on the charge to which it relates as if that charge has been framed in a separate charge-sheet .

80. Pleading to the charge . (1) After any plea under rules 75 and 77, any objection under rule 76 and any application under rules 78 and 79 have been dealt with, the accused shall be required subject to sub-rule (2) to plead either guilty or not guilty to each charge on which he is arraigned.

(2) Where a Court is empowered by section 105 to find an accused guilty of an offence other than that charged or guilty of committing the offence in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or where it could after hearing the evidence, make a special finding of guilty, subject to exceptions or variations in accordance with rule 101, the accused may plead guilty to such other offence or to the offence charged as having been committed in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or to the offence charged subject to such exceptions and variations.

81. Acceptance of plea of guilty . (1) Where an accused pleads guilty to a charge under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 80 the presiding officer or Judge Attorney shall, before the Court decides to accept the plea, explain to the accused the nature of the charge and the general effect of his plea and in particular to difference in procedure when an accused pleads guilty and when an accused pleads not guilty.

(2) The Court shall then cause the prosecutor to read the record or abstract of evidence to the Court or inform the Court of the facts contained therein:

Provided that if an expurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence was sent to the presiding officer, the prosecutor shall not read to the Court those parts of the record or abstract of evidence which have been expurgated or inform the Court of the facts contained in those parts, and shall not hand over the original record or abstract of evidence to the Court until the trial is concluded. Where there is no record or abstract of evidence, the Court shall record, in accordance with these rules sufficient evidence to enable it to determine the sentence.

(3) A Court shall not accept a plea of guilty under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 83, if,

- (a) the Court is not satisfied that the accused understands the nature of the charge or the effect of his plea; or
- (b) the presiding officer having regard to the evidence contained in the record of evidence or the abstract of evidence and all the circumstances. Considers that the accused should plead not guilty; or
- (c) the accused is liable, if convicted, to be sentenced to death.

(4) (a) In the case of a plea of guilty under rule 82, a Court shall not accept the plea unless the convening officer concurs and it is satisfied of the justice of such course.

(b) The concurrence of the convening officer may be signified by the prosecutor.

(5) When a plea of guilty under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 80 is not accepted by the Court or the accused either refuses to plead to the charge or does not plead to it intelligibly, the Court shall record a plea of not guilty.

(6) When a Court is satisfied that it can properly accept a plea of guilty under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 80 It shall record a finding of guilty in respect thereof.

(7) After the Court has recorded its findings, it shall give an opportunity to the accused to adduce evidence of character and to make a statement in mitigation of punishment.

(8) If, from the evidence adduced by the accused and his statement made under sub-rule (7), the Court is satisfied that the accused did not understand the effect of the plea of guilty, it should alter the record and enter a plea of not guilty and proceed with the trial accordingly.

(9) After sub-rule (7) has been complied with and the Court has decided to accept the plea of guilty the Court shall proceed as directed in rule 103.

82. Plea on alternative charge . (1) When an accused pleads guilty to the first of two or more alternative charges, the Court if it accepts the accused's plea of guilty, shall record a finding of guilty in respect of the first charge and the prosecutor shall withdraw any of the alternative charge before the accused is arraigned on it.

(2) When an accused pleads guilty to one or two or more charges which are laid in the alternative other than the first of such charges, the Court may,

(a) proceed as if the accused had pleaded not guilty to all the charges;
or

(b) (i) with concurrence of the convening officer (which may be signified by the prosecutor) record a finding of guilty on the charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty and a finding of not guilty on any alternative charge which is placed before it in the charge-sheet;

- (ii) where the court records such finding the prosecutor shall before the accused is arraigned on it withdraw any charge which is alternative to the charge of which the court has found the accused guilty and which is placed after it in the charge sheet.

83. Order of trial where plea of guilty and not guilty . (1) After the Court has recorded a finding of guilty, If there is no other charge in the same charge-sheet to which the accused has pleaded not guilty and no other accused who has pleaded not guilty to a charge in that charge-sheet, it shall proceed with the trial as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where there is another charge in the charge-sheet which the accused has pleaded not guilty or there is another accused who has pleaded guilty to a charge sheet in that accused who has pleaded not guilty to a charge in that charge-sheet, the Court shall not comply with rule 81 until after it has dealt with such other charge or tried such other accused and has announced and recorded its finding in respect thereof.

84. Charge of plea . (1) An accused who has pleaded not guilty may at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding withdraw his plea of not guilty and substitute a plea of guilty (including a plea of guilty under rule 82) and in such a case the Court shall, if it is satisfied that it can accept the accused's changed plea, record a finding in accordance with the accused's changed plea and so far as is necessary proceed as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where at any time during the trial it appears to the Court that an accused who has pleaded guilty does not understand the effect of his plea or the nature of the charge the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty and proceed with the trial accordingly.

(3) When the Court records a plea of not guilty in respect of any charge under sub-rule (2) it shall, if there was a charge laid in the alternative thereto which the prosecutor withdrew under rule 82 reinstate such alternative charge, arraign the accused thereof and proceed with the trial as if it had never been withdrawn.

85. Procedure on plea of not guilty . After a plea of not guilty to any charge has been recorded:

- (i) the court shall ask the accused whether he wishes to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of these rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with and that he has been prejudiced thereby or on the ground that he has not sufficient opportunity for preparing his defence ,
- (ii) where the accused applies for an adjournment,

- (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of his application and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto; and
 - (b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the application and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address;
- (iii) the Court may grant an adjournment if it thinks the interests of justice so require.

86. Opening address . (1) The prosecutor may, if he so desires, and shall, if required by the Court, make an opening address explaining the charge and the nature and general effect of the evidence which he proposes to adduce.

(2) The witnesses for the prosecution shall then be called to give their evidence.

87. Additional witness . Where the prosecutor intends to adduce evidence which is not contained in any record or abstract of evidence given to the accused, notice of such intention together with the particulars of the evidence shall, when practicable, be given to the accused at a reasonable time before the evidence is adduced and if such evidence is adduced without such notice or particulars having been given, the Court may, if the accused so desires, either adjourn after receiving the evidence or allow any cross-examination arising out of that evidence to be postponed, and the Court shall inform the accused of his right to apply for such an adjournment or postponement.

88. Dropping witnesses . The prosecutor shall not be bound to call all the witnesses against the accused whose evidence is contained in the record or abstract of evidence, nor a witness when he had notified the accused that he intends to call under rule 86, but if the prosecutor does not intend to call such witness to give evidence, he shall give the accused reasonable notice that he does not intend to call the witness and that the accused will be allowed to communicate with him and to call him as a witness and that the accused will be allowed to communicate with him and to call him as a witness for the defence, if he so desires.

89. Withdrawal of witnesses . During a trial, a witness other than the prosecutor or accused shall not, except by leave of the Court, be in Court while not under examination and if while he is under examination, a discussion arises as to whether a question is to be allowed or not with regard to his evidence the Court may direct the witness to withdraw during such discussion.

90. Examination of witness . (1) A witness may be examined by the person calling him and may be cross-examined by the opposite party during the proceedings and on the conclusion of any such cross examination may be re-examined by the person who called him on matters arising out of the cross-examination.

(2) (a) The person examining a witness shall put his questions to the witness orally and unless an objection is made by the witness, the Court, the Judge Attorney, the prosecutor or by the accused, the witness shall reply forthwith.

(b) Where such an objection is made, the witness shall not reply until the objection has been disposed of.

(3) The Court may allow the cross-examination or re-examination of a witness to be postponed .

(4) Before the examination of a witness, he shall be administered an oath or affirmation in the following Form or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be in accordance with his religion or otherwise binding on his conscience.

FORM OF OATH

I,do, swear by Almighty God that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

I,do, solemnly, truly and sincerely declare and affirm that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

91. Questioning by the Court . (1) The presiding officer, the Judge Attorney and any member of the court may put questions to a witness.

(2) Upon any such question being answered, the prosecutor and the accused may put to the witness such questions arising from the answer which he has given as seem proper to the Court.

92. Reading over of evidence . (1) (a) The record which has been made of the evidence given by a witness shall be read back to him before he leaves the Court and when this is done he may ask for the record to be corrected or explain the evidence which he has given.

(b) Where any such correction is made or explanation given, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness respecting the correction or explanation as seem proper to the Court.

(2) When a shorthand writer is employed it shall not be necessary to comply with sub-rule (1), if, in the opinion of the Court and the Judge Attorney (if any), it is necessary to do so:

Provided that if any witness so demands, sub-rule (1) shall be complied with.

93. Calling or recalling witnesses by the Court . (1) (a) The Court may at any time before it closes to deliberate in its finding or if there is Judge Attorney before he begins to sum up, call a witness or recall a witness, if in the opinion of the Court it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(b) Where the Court calls a witness or recalls a witness under this rule, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court.

(2) The prosecutor and the accused may, at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding or if there is a Judge Attorney before he begins to sum up, recall a witness by leave of the Court and the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court.

94. Submission of no case to answer and stopping of cases . (1) (a) At the close of the case for the prosecution the accused may submit to the Court in respect of any charge that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case for him to answer and that he should not be called upon to make his defence to that charge.

(b) Where the accused makes such submission that prosecutor may address the Court in answer there to and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) The Court shall not allow the submission unless it is satisfied that,-

(a) the prosecution has not established a prima facie case on the charge as laid; and

(b) it is not open to it on the evidence to make a special finding under either section 105 or sub-rule (4) of rule 101.

(3) (a) Where the Court allows the submission, it shall find the accused not guilty of the charge to which it relates and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

(b) Where the Court disallows the submission it shall proceed with the trial of the offence as charged.

(4) The Court may, of its own motion, after the close of the hearing of the case of the prosecution, and after hearing the prosecutor find the accused not guilty of the charge and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

95. Case for the defence . (1) After the close of the case for the prosecution, the presiding officer or the Judge Attorney (if any) shall explain to the accused that,

- (a) if he wishes, he may give evidence on oath as a witness or make a statement without being sworn but that he is not obliged to do either;
- (b) if he gives evidence on oath, he shall be liable to be cross-examined by the prosecutor and to be questioned by the Court.

(2) For the purpose of enabling the accused to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him, the Court may, at any stage of the trial, without previously warning the accused, put such questions to him as the Court considers necessary, and shall for the purpose aforesaid, question him generally on the case after the witnesses for the prosecution have been examined and before he is called on for his defence.

(3) The accused shall not render himself liable to punishment by refusing to answer such questions, or by giving false answers to them.

(4) The answers given by the accused may be taken into consideration in such trial and put in evidence, for or against him in any other inquiry into or trial for, any other offence which such answers may tend to show he has committed.

(5) If the accused intends to call a witness to the facts of the case other than himself, he may make an opening address outlining the case for the defence before the evidence for the defence is given.

96. Witnesses for defence . (1) After rule 95 has been complied with the witnesses for the defence (if any) shall be called to give their evidence.

(2) The provisions of rules 90,91 and 92 shall apply to the witnesses for the defence as they apply to the evidence of witnesses for the prosecution.

97. Witness in reply . After the witnesses for the defence have given their evidence, the prosecutor may by leave of the Court call a witness or recall a witness to give evidence on any matter raised by the accused in his defence which the prosecution could not properly have mentioned to the Court before the accused disclosed his defence or which the prosecution could not reasonably have foreseen.

98. Closing address . (1) After all the evidence has been given the prosecutor and the accused may each make a closing address to the Court.

(2) The accused shall be entitled to make his closing address after the closing address by the prosecutor unless the accused has called a witness to facts other than himself, in which case the prosecutor shall be entitled, subject to sub- rules (3) and (4) to make his closing address after the accused has made the closing address.

(3) Where two or more accused are tried jointly anyone of them who has called no witness shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

(4) (a) Where two or more accused are represented by the same defending officer or counsel he may make one closing address only.

(b) Where anyone of the accused for whom he appears has called no witness to facts other than himself such defending officer or counsel shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

99. Summing up by Judge Attorney . After the closing address, if there is a Judge Attorney, he shall sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law relating to the case in open Court.

100. Deliberation on finding . (1) The Court shall deliberate on its finding in closed Court in the presence of the Judge Attorney.

(2) The opinion of each member of the Court as to the finding shall be given by word of mouth on each charge separately starting with the junior most in rank.

101. Record and announcement of finding . (1) The finding on every charge upon which the accused is arraigned shall be recorded and, except as provided in these rules, shall be recorded simply as a finding of "Guilty" or of "Not Guilty":

Provided that the Court shall record brief reasons for such findings which shall be signed and dated by the presiding officer and the Judge-Attorney, if any.

(2) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts proved do not disclose the offence charged or any offence of which he might under the Act legally be found guilty on the Charge as laid, the Court shall acquit the accused of that charge.

(3) If the Court has doubts as regards any charge whether the facts proved show the accused to be guilty of the charge as laid, it may, before recording a finding on that charge refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and may, if necessary, adjourn for that purpose.

(4) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts which it finds to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of "Not Guilty" record a special finding.

(5) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variation specified therein.

(6) Where there are alternative charges and the facts proved appear to the Court not to constitute the offence mentioned in any of those alternative charges, the Court shall record a finding of "Not Guilty" on that charge.

(7) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilty upon the alternative charge or charges.

(8) If the Court thinks that the facts proved constitute one of the offences stated in two or more of the alternative charges, but doubts which of those offences the facts do at law constitute, it may, before recording a finding on those charges, refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and stating that it doubts whether those facts constitute in law the offence stated in one or other of such charges and may, if necessary, adjourn for that purpose.

(9) The finding on each charge shall be announced forthwith in open Court as subject to confirmation.

102. Procedure on acquittal . If the finding on all the charges is "Not Guilty" the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date on the finding and such signature shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings, and the proceedings upon being signed by the Judge Attorney (if any) shall be at once transmitted for confirmation.

103. Procedure on conviction . (1) If the finding on any charge is "Guilty", then, for the guidance of the Court in determining its sentence, and of the confirming authority in considering its sentence, the Court, before deliberating on the sentence, shall whenever possible take evidence of and record the general Character, age, service, rank, any recognised acts of gallantry or distinguished conduct of the accused, any previous convictions of the accused either by Force Court or a Criminal Court, any previous punishment awarded to him by an Officer exercising authority under section 56 or as the case may be, section 58, the length of time he has been in arrest or in confinement on any previous sentence, and any decoration, or reward, of which he may be in possession or to which he is entitled.

(2) Evidence of the above matter may be given by a witness verifying a statement which contains a summary of the entries in the service book respecting the accused and identifying the accused as the person referred to in that summary.

(3) The accused may cross-examine any such witness and may call witnesses to rebut such evidence and if the accused so requests, the service book or a duly certified copy of the material entries therein, shall be produced and if the accused alleges that the summary is in any respect not in accordance with the service book or such certified copy, as the case may be, the Court shall compare the summary with the service book or with copy of the material entries and if it finds that it is not in accordance therewith, shall cause summary to be corrected or the objection of the accused to be recorded.

(4) When all the evidence on the above matter has been given, the accused may address the Court thereon and in mitigation of punishment.

104. Sentence . The Court shall award a single sentence in respect of all the offences of which the accused is found guilty, and such sentence shall be deemed to be awarded in respect of which it can be legally given and not to be awarded in respect of which it can not be legally given.

105. Recommendation for mercy . (1) Where the Court makes a recommendation to mercy it shall give its reasons for such recommendation.

(2) The number of the members of the Court making recommendations to mercy mentioned in this rule or any question relating thereto, may be entered in the proceedings.

106. Announcement of sentence and signing and transmission of proceedings . (1) The sentence together with any recommendation to mercy and the reasons for any such recommendation shall be announced forthwith in open Court and the sentence shall be announced subject to confirmation.

(2) Upon the Court awarding the sentence, the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date to the sentence and such signatures shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings and the proceedings upon being signed by the Judge Attorney (if any) ; shall at once be transmitted for confirmation.

107. Revision . (1) (a) Where the finding is sent back for revision under section 127, the Court shall re-assemble in open Court, the revision order shall be read and if the Court is directed to take fresh evidence, such evidence shall be taken in open Court.

(b) Where such fresh evidence is recorded, otherwise than that at the instance of the accused, the accused shall be given a further opportunity to lead evidence in respect of matters brought out in such fresh evidence.

(c) The prosecutor and the accused shall be given a further opportunity to address the Court in respect of the fresh evidence led.

(d) The Judge Attorney may also give a further summing up.

(2) Where the revision of finding does not involve taking of fresh evidence the accused shall be given an opportunity to address the Court in respect of matter raised in the revision order.

(3) (a) The Court shall then deliberate on its finding in closed Court and if the Court does not adhere to its former finding, it shall revoke the finding and sentence and record a new finding and if such new finding involves a sentence, pass the sentence, afresh.

(b) Where the original finding was one of "Not Guilty", the Court shall, before passing sentence comply with rules 102 and 103.

(4) (a) Where the sentence alone is sent back for revision, the revision order shall be read in open Court and the accused be given an opportunity to address the Court in regard to matters referred to in the revision order.

(b) The Court shall then reconsider its sentence in closed Court and if it does not adhere to the sentence, revoke the sentence and pass the sentence afresh.

(5) Where the sentence alone is sent for revision the Court shall not revise the finding.

108. Confirmation and promulgation . (1) When a confirming authority receives the record of the proceedings of a Court, it shall record its decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the Court may have made under section 117 on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate Form set out in Appendix VIII and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a Court has accepted a plea of guilty made under rule 80 the confirming authority may confirm its finding notwithstanding that the Court has accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer, if, in the opinion of the confirming authority, it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(3) (a) When a court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the court or a plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to a charge it shall not be necessary for the confirming authority to approve specifically the decision of the Court, but its approval shall be implied from its confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(b) Where it disapproves the decision of the Court to reject the plea or to over-rule the objection it shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) A confirming authority may state its reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if it withholds confirmation where a Court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to the charges because it disapproves the decision of the Court, the confirming authority shall record its decision under sub-rule (1) stating the reason to withhold its confirmation.

(5) Where the sentence of a Court is improperly expressed, the confirming authority may in confirming the sentence vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed .

(6) Whenever it appears that there is sufficient evidence on a plea of guilty under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 80 to justify the finding of the Court, such finding and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed, and if confirmed, shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from, these rules, if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

(7) While confirming the finding, the confirming authority may either unconditionally or subject to conditions which the accused accepts, reduce or remit a portion of the sentence or commute the punishment to one lower in the scale of punishments in section 51.

(8) (a) When a confirming authority has confirmed a finding and a sentence of a Court or has withheld confirmation thereof, it shall send the record of the proceedings to the Commanding Officer of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence or the fact that confirmation has been withheld as the case may be.

(b) The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the Form set out in Appendix IX.

(c) Where confirmation has been withheld because the confirming authority disapproves the Court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction of a plea in bar of trial or to over-rule an objection to the charge, the accused shall be so informed.

CHAPTER X

PROCEDURE OF FORCE COURTS AND INCIDENTAL MATTERS

109. Seating of members . The members of a Court shall take their seats according to their rank.

110. Responsibility of presiding officer . (1) The presiding officer is responsible for the trial being conducted in proper order, and in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and rules made there under and in a manner befitting a court of justice.

(2) It is the duty of the presiding officer to see that the accused has a fair trial, and that he does not suffer from any disadvantage in consequence of his position as a person under trial, or of his ignorance, or of his incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses, or otherwise.

111. Power of Court over address of prosecutor and accused . (1) It is the duty of the prosecutor to assist the Court in the administration of justice, to behave impartially, to bring the whole of the transaction before the Court and not to take any unfair advantage of, or suppress any evidence in favour of the accused .

(2) The prosecutor may not refer to any matter not relevant to the charge or charges, before the Court, and it is the duty of the Court to stop him from so doing and also to restrain any undue violence of language or want of fairness or moderation on the part of the prosecutor .

(3) The Court shall give reasonable facilities to the accused in making his defence and the accused must abstain from making any remarks contemptuous or disrespectful towards the Court, and from coarse and insulting language towards others, but he may for the purpose of his defence impeach the evidence and charge other persons with blame and even criminality and if he does so, he shall be responsible for any liability which he may thereby incur and the Court may caution the accused as to the irrelevance of his defence, but shall not unless in special case, stop his defence solely on ground of such irrelevance.

112. Sitting in closed Court . (1) A Court shall, where it is so directed by these rules and may in other case on any deliberation amongst the members, sit in closed Court.

(2) No person shall be present in closed Court except the members of the Court, the Judge Attorney (if any) and any officer under instruction.

(3) For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) a Court may either retire or cause the place where it sits to be cleared of all other persons not entitled to be present.

(4) Except as mentioned in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) all proceedings, including the view of any place, shall be in open Court and in the presence of the accused subject to sub rule (5) .

(5) The Court shall have the power to exclude from the Court any witness who has yet to give evidence or any other person, other than the accused , who interferes with its proceedings.

113. Continuity of trial and adjournment of Court . (1) Once the Court is assembled and the accused has been arraigned, the Court shall continue the trial from day to day unless it appears to the Court that an adjournment is necessary for the ends of justice or that such continuance is impracticable.

(2) (a) A Court may from time to time adjourn its proceedings and meet at such place as may be convenient, and

(b) Wherever necessary, visit the scene of occurrence.

(3) The senior officer on the Spot may also for exigencies of service adjourn or prolong the adjournment of the Court. .

(4) A Court in the absence of a Judge Attorney (if one has been appointed for that Court) shall not proceed, and shall adjourn.

(5) If the time to which an adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment shall be until further orders from the Force authority, and , if the place to which an adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment shall be to the same place or to such other place as may be specified in further orders from the Force authority.

114. Suspension of trial . (1) Where in consequence of anything arising while the Court is sitting, the Court is unable by reason of dissolution as specified in section 83 or otherwise, to continue the trial, the presiding officer or , in his absence the senior member present, shall immediately report the facts to the convening authority.

115. Proceedings on death or illness of accused . In case of the death of the accused or of such illness of the accused as renders it impossible to continue the trial, the Court shall ascertain the fact of the death or illness by evidence and record the same and adjourn and transmit the proceedings to the convening authority.

116. Death, retirement or absence of presiding officer . In the case of the death, retirement, on challenge or unavoidable absence of the presiding officer, the next senior officer shall take the place of the presiding officer and the trial shall proceed if the Court is still composed of not less the minimum number of officers of which it is required by law to consist.

117. Presence of all members of Court . (1) All the members of the Court shall remain present during the trial of an accused and any member of a Court who has been absent while any part of the evidence on the trial of an accused person is taken, shall take no further part in the trial of that person but the Court will not be affected unless it is reduced below the legal minimum.

(2) An officer shall not be added to a Court after accused has been arraigned.

118. Taking of opinions of members of Court . (1) Every member of a Court must give his opinion by word of mouth on every question which the Court has to decide, and must give his opinion as to the sentence notwithstanding that he has given his opinion in favour of acquittal.

(2) The opinions of the members of the Court shall be taken in succession, beginning with the member lowest in rank.

119. Procedure on incidental questions . If any objections is raised on any matter of law, evidence, or procedure, by the prosecutor or by or on behalf of the accused during the trial, the prosecutor or the accused or counsel or the defending officer, as the case may be, shall have a right to answer the same and the person raising the objection shall have a right to reply.

120. Evidence when to be translated . When any evidence is given in a language, which any of the officers comprising the Court, the accused, or the Judge Attorney does not understand, it shall be translated into a language which he understands.

121. Record in Proceedings of transactions of a Force Court . (1) At a Court, the Judge Attorney or, if there is none, the presiding officer shall record or cause to be recorded all transactions of the Court, and shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record (in these rules referred to as the proceedings), and if the Judge Attorney is called as a witness by the accused, the presiding officer shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record in the proceedings of the evidence of the Judge Attorney.

(2) The evidence shall be taken down in a narrative form in, as nearly as possible, the words used, but in any case where the prosecutor, the accused, the Judge Attorney or the Court considers it material, the question and answer shall be taken down verbatim.

(3) Where an objection has been taken to any question or to the admission of any evidence or to the procedure of the Court such objection shall if the prosecutor or accused so requests or the Court thinks fit, be entered upon the proceedings together with the grounds of the objection and the decision of the Court thereon.

(4) Where any address by, or on behalf of the prosecutor' or the accused, is not in writing, it shall not be necessary to record the same in the proceedings further or otherwise than the Court thinks proper, except that,

- (a) the Court shall in every case make such record of the defence, made by the accused as will enable the confirming officer to judge of the reply made by, or on behalf of, the accused to each charge against him; and
- (b) the Court shall also record any particular matters in the address by or on behalf of the prosecutor or the accused when the prosecutor or the accused; as the case may be, may require.

(5) The Court shall not enter in the proceedings any comment or anything not before the Court, or any report or any fact not forming part of the trial, but if any such comment or report seems to the Court necessary, the Court may forward it to the proper authority in a separate document, signed by the presiding officer.

122. Custody and inspection of proceedings . The proceedings shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Judge Attorney (if any), or, if there is none with the presiding officer, but may, with proper precaution for their safety, be inspected by the members of the Court, the prosecutor and accused, at all reasonable times before the Court is closed to consider the findings.

123. Review of General /Petty Force Court proceedings . The proceedings of a General Force Court and Petty Force Court shall be sent by the person having the custody thereof to the Judge Attorney -General for review, who shall then forward the same to the confirming authority.

124. Defending Officer, friend of accused and counsel . (1) At any General or Petty Force Court an accused person may be represented by a counsel or by any officer subject to the Act who shall be called "the defending officer" or assisted by any person whose services may be able to procure and who shall be called the friend of the accused".

(2) The defending officer shall have the same rights and duties as appertain to a counsel under these rules and shall be under the like obligations.

(3) The friend of an accused may advise the accused on all points and suggest the questions to be put to the witnesses, but he shall not examine or cross-examine the witnesses, address the Court.

125. Requirement for appearance of counsel . (1) An accused person intending to be represented by a counsel shall give to his Commanding Officer or to the convening officer the earliest practicable notice of such intention, and, if no sufficient notice has been given, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the prosecutor, adjourn to enable him to obtain a counsel on behalf of the prosecutor at the trial.

(2) Where the convening officer so directs counsel may appear along with the prosecutor but in that case, unless the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) has been given by the accused, notice of the direction for counsel to appear shall be given to the accused at such time, but in any case the notice shall not be less than seven days before the trial as would, in the opinion of the Court, have enabled the accused to obtain counsel to assist him at the trial.

(3) The counsel, who appears before a Court on behalf of the prosecutor or accused, shall have the same rights as the prosecutor or accused, for whom he appears to call, and orally examine, cross-examine and re-examine witnesses, to put in any plea, and to inspect the proceedings and shall have the right otherwise to act in the course of the trial in place of the person on whose behalf he appears and he shall comply with the provisions of these rules as if he was that person and in such a case that person shall have no right himself to do any of the aforesaid matters except as regards the statement allowed by sub-rule (2) of rule 96 and sub-rule (4) of rule 103 or except so far as the Court permits him to do so.

(4) When counsel appears on behalf of the prosecutor, the prosecutor if called as witness may be examined as any other witness.

126. Disqualification of Judge Attorney . An officer who is disqualified for sitting on a Court, shall be disqualified for acting as a Judge Attorney at that Court.

127. Substitution on death, illness or absence of Judge Attorney . In the case of death or illness or any other cause which makes the Judge Attorney unable to attend, in that case the Court shall adjourn, and the presiding officer shall report accordingly to the convening officer and on receipt of the report the convening officer may appoint another person who shall be sworn or affirmed, and act as Judge Attorney for the residue of the trial, or until the Judge Attorney returns as the case may be.

128. Power and duties of Judge Attorney . Where a Judge Attorney has been named to act on the Court, he shall,

- (a) give his opinion on any question of law relating to the charge or trial whenever so required by the Court, prosecutor or the accused ;
- (b) inform the Court of any irregularity or other infirmity in the proceedings;
- (c) inform the convening officer and the Court of any infirmity or defect in the charge or in the constitution of the Court;
- (d) sum up the evidence and give his opinion on any question of law, before the Court proceeds to deliberate upon its findings.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Judge Attorney to ensure that the accused does not suffer any disadvantage in consequence of his position as such, or because of ignorance or incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses and for this purpose the Judge Attorney may, with the permission of the Court, call witness and put questions to them which appear to him to be necessary or desirable.

(3) In the discharge of his duties, the Judge Attorney shall maintain an attitude of strict impartiality.

(4) Where any opinion has been given by the Judge Attorney to the Court on any matter before it, it may be entered in the proceedings, if the Judge Attorney or the Court desires it to be entered.

(5) The Judge Attorney shall represent the Judge Attorney-General at a Force Court.

129. Finding of insanity . Where the Court finds either that an accused, by reason of unsoundness of mind, is incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or that it was wrong or contrary to law, the presiding officer or in the case of Summary Force Court, the officer holding the trial, shall affix his signature and the date on the finding which shall also be signed by the Judge -Attorney (if any) and thereupon the proceedings shall, at once, be transmitted to the confirming authority or in the case of Summary Force Court to the Deputy Inspector-General or the empowered to countersign them.

130. Preservation of proceedings . The proceedings of every Court shall, after promulgation, be forwarded to the office of the Judge Attorney- General and be preserved there for not less than three years, or until the sentence awarded by the Court has expired whichever is later.

131. Right of person tried to copies of proceedings . Every person tried by a Force Court shall be entitled to obtain on demand, at any time after the confirmation of the finding and sentence, when such confirmation is required and before the proceedings are destroyed, from the Judge Attorney-General a copy thereof, including the proceedings upon revision, if any.

132. Copy of proceedings not to be given in certain cases

Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 131, if the Central Government is satisfied for reasons to be recorded that it is against the interests of the security of the State or friendly relations with foreign states to supply a copy of the proceedings or any part thereof under the said rule, he shall not be furnished with such a copy:

Provided that if the Central Government is satisfied that the person demanding the copy is desirous of submitting a petition in accordance with the provisions of the Act or instituting any action in a court of law in relation to the finding or sentence, it shall permit inspection of the proceedings by such a person, or his legal advisor, if any, on the following conditions, namely:

- (a) the inspection shall be made at such time and such times and such places as the Central Government or any authority authorised by it may direct; and
- (b) the person allowed to inspect the proceedings shall before such inspection, furnish,
 - (i) an undertaking, in writing, that he shall not make copies of the proceedings or any part thereof and that the information or documents contained in such proceedings shall not be used by him, for any purpose whatsoever, other than for the purpose of submitting a petition in accordance with the provisions of the Act or instituting an action in a court of law in relation to the said finding or sentence; and
 - (ii) a certificate that he is aware that he may render himself liable to prosecution under sections 3 and 5 of the Indian Official Secrets Act, 1923 (19 of 1923) if he commits any act specified in the said sections in relation to the documents or information contained in the said proceedings.

133. Loss of proceedings . (1) If, before confirmation, the original proceedings of a Court which require confirmation or any part thereof, are lost, a copy thereof, if any, certified by the presiding officer or the Judge Attorney at the Court may be accepted in lieu of the original.

(2) If there is no such copy, and sufficient evidence of the charge, finding, sentence, and transactions of the court can be procured, that evidence may, with the assent of the accused, be accepted in lieu of the original proceedings, or part which have been lost.

(3) In any case mentioned in sub-rules (1) and (2) the finding and sentence may be confirmed, and shall be valid as if the original proceedings or part thereof had not been lost.

(4) If the accused refuses the assent referred to in sub-rule (2), he may be tried again, and the finding and sentence of the previous Court to which the proceedings have been lost shall be void.

(5) If, after confirmation or in any case where confirmation is not required, the original proceedings or any part thereof are lost, and there is sufficient evidence of the charge, finding, sentence, and transactions of the Court and of the confirmation (if required) of the finding and sentence, that evidence shall be valid and sufficient record of the trial for all purposes.

134. Offences by witnesses and others . When a Court is of opinion that there is ground for inquiring into any offence specified in sections 40 and 41 and committed before it or brought to its notice in the course of its proceedings, which would if done by a person subject to the Act, have constituted such an offence, such Court may proceed as follows:

- (a) if the person who appears to have committed the offence is subject to the Act, the Court may bring his conduct to the notice of his Commanding Officer.
- (b) if the person who appears to have done the act is amenable to a law relating to any Armed Force, the Court may bring his conduct to the notice of the Force authority, as the case may be;
- (c) in other cases the officer who summoned the witness to appear or the presiding officer or officer holding the Court, as the case may be, may forward a written complaint to the nearest Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction, and in the case of acts which would, if done by a person subject to this Act have constituted an offence under clause (e) of section 40 or section 41, the Court, after making any preliminary inquiry that may be necessary may send the case to the nearest Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction for inquiry or trial in accordance with section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974),

CHAPTER XI SUMMARY FORCE COURT

135. Proceedings . (1) The officer holding the trial (hereinafter in this chapter called the Court) shall record, or cause to be recorded the transactions of every Summary Force Court.

(2) The Court may appoint a shorthand writer to record the proceedings of the Court. Such shorthand writer shall be duly sworn or affirmed as per Form given in rule 71

136. Evidence when to be translated . (1) When any evidence is given in a language which the Court or the accused does not understand, that evidence shall be translated to the Court or accused as the case may be in a language which it or he does understand.

(2) The Court shall for this purpose either appoint an interpreter or shall itself take the oath or affirmation prescribed for the interpreter at a Summary Force Court.

(3) When documents are produced for the purpose of formal proof, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to cause as much to be interpreted as appears necessary.

137. Assembly . When the Court, the interpreter (in any) and the officers and subordinate officers attending the trial are assembled, the accused shall be brought before the Court and the oath or affirmation prescribed in rule 138 shall be taken by the persons mentioned therein.

138. Swearing or affirming of court and interpreter . The Court shall take oath or affirmation in anyone of the following forms or in such other form to the same purport which would according to the religion or otherwise be binding on the conscience of the officer constituting the Court.

FORM OF OATH

I,..... swear by Almighty God that I will duly administer justice, in accordance with the provisions of the Sashstra Seema Bal Act, 2007, without partiality, favour or affection.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

I, .. do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will duly administer justice, in accordance with the provisions of the Sashastra Seema Bal Act, 2007, without partiality, favour or affection.

(2) The Court, or any other person empowered by it in this behalf shall administer to the interpreter (if any) an oath or affirmation in any of the following forms, or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be according to the religion or otherwise binding on the conscience of the person who is to act as interpreter.

FORM OF OATH

I,.....swear by Almighty God that I will faithfully interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do touching the matter before this Court.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

I,.....do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will faithfully interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do touching the matter before this Court.

(3) The witnesses shall, after the administration of the oath and the affirmation, withdraw from the Court.

139. Swearing of Court to try several accused persons . (1) A Summary Force Court may be sworn or affirmed at the same time to try any number of accused persons then present before it whether those persons are to be tried collectively or separately.

(2) In the case of several accused persons to be tried separately, the Court, when sworn or affirmed shall proceed with one case postponing the other cases and taking them afterwards in succession.

(3) Where several accused persons are tried separately upon charges arising out of the transaction, the Court may, if it considers it to be desirable in the interests of justice, postpone consideration of any sentence to be awarded to any one or more such accused persons until the trials of all such accused persons have been completed.

140. Arraignment of accused . (1) After the Court and interpreter (if any) are sworn or affirmed as mentioned above, the accused shall be arraigned on the charges framed against him.

(2) The charges on which the accused is arraigned shall be read and, if necessary, translated to him, and explained and he shall be required to plead separately to each charge.

141. Objection by accused to charge . The accused, when required to plead any charge, may object to the charge on the ground that it does not disclose an offence under the Act, or is not in accordance with these rules.

142. Amendment of charge . (1) At any time during the trial if it appears to the Court that there is mistake in the name or description of the accused in the charge-sheet, it shall amend the charge-sheet so as to correct that mistake.

(2) If on the trial of a charge it appears to the court at any time before it has begun to examine the witnesses, that in the interests of justice any addition to, omission from, or alteration in, the charge is required, it may amend such charge and may, after due notice to the accused, and with the sanction of the officer empowered to convene a Petty Force Court for the trial of the accused, if the amended charge require such sanction, proceed with the trial on such amended charge.

143. Special pleas . If a special plea to the general jurisdiction of the Court, or a plea in bar of trial is offered by the accused the procedure laid down in Chapter IX for disposing of such pleas shall, so far as may be applicable, be followed.

144. General plea of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" . (1) The accused persons' plea of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" (or if he refuses to plead or does not plead intelligibly either one or the other a plea of "Not Guilty") shall be recorded on each charge.

(2) If an accused person pleads "Guilty" that plea shall be recorded as the finding of the Court, but before it is recorded the Court shall ascertain that the accused understands the nature of the charge to which he has pleaded guilty and shall inform him of the general effect of that plea and in particular of the meaning of the charge to which he has pleaded guilty and of the difference in procedure which will be made by the plea of guilty and shall advise him to withdraw that plea if it appears from the record or abstract of evidence (if any) or other wise that the accused ought to plead not guilty.

(3) Where an accused person pleads guilty to the first two or more charges laid in the alternative, the Court may after sub-rule (2) has been complied with and before the accused is arraigned on the alternative charge or charges, withdraw such alternative charge or charges and follow the charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty without requiring the accused to plead thereto, and a record to that effect shall be made in the proceedings of the Court.

145. Procedure after plea of "Guilty ". (1) Upon the record of the plea of "Guilty" if there are other charges in the same charge-sheet to which the plea is "Not Guilty", the trial shall first proceed with respect to those other charges. and, after the finding on those charges, shall proceed with the charges on which a plea of "Guilty" has been entered, but if there are alternative charges, the Court may either proceed with respect to all the charges as if the accused had not pleaded "Guilty to any charge or may, instead of trying him, record a finding of "Guilty" upon anyone of the alternative charges to which he had pleaded "Guilty" and finding of "Not Guilty" upon all the other alternative charges which precede such charge.

(2) (a) After the record of the plea of "Guilty" on a charge (if the trial does not proceed on any other charges) the Court shall read the record or abstract of evidence and annex it to the proceedings or if there is no such record, or abstract shall take and record sufficient evidence to enable it, to determine the sentence, and the reviewing officer to know all the circumstances connected with the offence.

(b) The evidence shall be taken in like manner as is directed by these rules in the case of a plea of "Not Guilty".

(3) The accused may, after such evidence has been taken or as the case may be, the record or abstract of evidence has been read, address the court with reference to the charge and in mitigation of punishment and may call witnesses as to his character.

(4) (a) If from the statement of the accused or from the record of evidence or otherwise it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty", the Court shall alter the record and enter a plea of "Not Guilty", and proceed with the trial accordingly.

(b) Any alternative charges withdrawn under sub-rule (1) shall be reinstated in the charge-sheet and the trial shall take place as if they had never been withdrawn.

(5) If a plea of "Guilty" is recorded on some charges and the trial proceeds with respect to other charges in the same charge-sheet, the proceedings under sub-rules (2) and (3) shall take place after the finding on the other charges in the same charge-sheet are recorded.

(6) When the accused states anything in mitigation of punishment which in the opinion of the Court requires to be proved, and would if proved affect the amount of punishment, the Court may permit the accused to call witnesses to prove the same.

146. Withdrawal of plea of "Not Guilty" . The accused may, if he thinks fit at any time during trial, withdraw his plea of "Not Guilty" and plead "Guilty" and in such case the Court shall at once, subject to compliance with sub-rule (2) of rule 144, record a plea and finding of "Guilty" and shall, so far as if necessary proceed in the manner specified in rule 145.

147. Procedure after plea of "Not Guilty" . (1) After the plea of "Not Guilty" to any charge, is recorded, the evidence for the prosecution will be taken.

(2) At the close of the evidence for the prosecution the accused shall be asked if he has anything to say in his defence or may defer such address until he has called his witnesses.

(3) The accused may then call his witnesses, including witnesses to character.

148. Witnesses in reply to defence . The Court may, if it thinks it necessary in the interests of justice, call witnesses in reply to the defence.

149. Evidence of witnesses . The provisions of rules 91 ,92 and 93 shall, so far as may be, apply to the evidence of witnesses at a Summary Force Court as they apply to the evidence of witnesses at a General Force Court or Petty Force Court.

150. Record and announcement of finding . (1) The Court shall after the evidence for prosecution and defence has been heard, record its findings.

(2) The finding on every charge upon which the accused is arraigned shall be recorded and except as provided in these rules shall be recorded simply as a finding of "Guilty" or of "Not Guilty".

(3) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts proved do not disclose the offence charged or any offence of which he might under the Act legally be found guilty on the charge laid, the Court shall find the accused "Not Guilty" of that charge.

(4) Where the court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts which it finds to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of "Not Guilty" record a special finding.

(5) Where there are alternative charges, and the facts proved appear to the court not to constitute the offence mentioned in any of those alternative charges the court shall record a finding of "Not Guilty" on that charge.

(6) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variations specified therein.

(7) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one or two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilty upon the alternative charge or charges.

151. Procedure on acquittal . Where the findings on each of the charges on a charge sheet is "Not Guilty", the Court shall affix its signature and date to the proceedings, the findings will be announced in open Court, and the accused will be released if under arrest in respect of these charges.

152. Procedure on finding of "Guilty" . (1) Where the finding on any charge is "Guilty", the Court may record of its own knowledge, or take evidence of any record, the general character age, service, rank, and any recognised acts of gallantry, or distinguished conduct of the accused, and previous convictions of the accused either by a Force Court or a Criminal Court any previous punishment awarded to him by an officer exercising authority under section 56 the length of time he has been in arrest or in confinement on any previous sentence, and any decoration, or reward, of which he may be in possession or to which he may be entitled.

(2) Where the Court does not record the matters mentioned in this rule of its own knowledge evidence on these matters may be taken in the manner specified in rule 103 for similar evidence.

153. Sentence . The Court shall award one sentence in respect of all the offences of which the accused is found guilty.

154. Signing of proceedings . The Court shall affix its signature and the date to the sentence and such signature shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings.

155. Charges in different charge sheets . (1) When the charges at a trial by Summary Force Court are contained in different charge-sheets, the accused shall be tried on each charge-sheet separately up to and including the stage of finding.

(2) The Court shall, thereafter, comply with rule 151 or as the case may be, rule 152.

156. Clearing the Court . (1) The officer holding the trial may clear the Court to consider the evidence or to consult with the officers and subordinate officers attending the trial.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1) all the proceedings including the view of any place, shall be in open Court, and in the presence of the accused .

157. Adjournment . A Court may,

- (a) from time to time adjourn its proceedings and meet at such place and time as may be convenient; and
- (b) Wherever necessary visit the scene of occurrence.

158. Friend of the accused . During a trial at a Summary Force Court an accused may take the assistance of any person including a legal practitioner, as he may consider necessary:

Provided that such person shall not examine or cross examine witnesses or address the Court.

159. Memorandum to be attached to proceedings . Where Summary Force Court tries an offence which shall not ordinarily be tried without reference to an authority mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 86, an explanatory memorandum shall be attached to the proceedings.

160. Promulgation . The sentence of a Summary Force Court shall be promulgated in the manner usual in the service, at the earliest opportunity after it has been pronounced and shall be subject to the provisions of the Act as carried out without delay after promulgation.

161. Review of proceedings . The proceedings of a Summary Force Court shall immediately on promulgation be forwarded through the Judge Attorney-General, or an officer nominated by him for the purpose to the Deputy Inspector General or the officer under whom the accused may be serving.

162. Action by the Deputy Inspector-General . (1) Where the Deputy Inspector-General to whom the proceedings of a Summary Force Court have been forwarded under rule 161 is satisfied that injustice has been done to the accused by reason of any grave irregularity in the proceedings or otherwise, he may,-

- (a) set aside the proceedings of the Court;
- or
- (b) reduce the sentence or commute the punishment awarded to one lower in the scale of punishment given in section 51.

(2) Where no action under sub-rule (1) has been taken he shall countersign the proceedings and return it to the unit of the accused for promulgation.

(3) The proceedings shall after its promulgation, be forwarded to the Judge Attorney -General for custody.

163. Rules which shall not apply to trial by Summary Force Court . The provisions of Chapters IX and X of these rules shall not apply to trials by Summary Force Court in so far as they are inconsistent with any of the provisions contained in this Chapter pertaining to Summary Force Court.

CHAPTER XII EXECUTION OF SENTENCE

164. Direction about sentence of imprisonment . (1) A confirming authority or in the case of a Summary Force Court, the Court, shall direct that the sentence of imprisonment shall be undergone by confinement either in a civil prison or in Force custody.

(2) Such direction may be varied by any superior officer.

165. Warrants . (1) Warrants for committing a person to a civil prison to undergo sentence of imprisonment or to get such person back into Force custody if so required or to order the release of such a person from civil prison or any variation done by any superior officer shall be in such Form as may be appropriate to each set out in Appendix -X.

(2) Such warrants shall be signed by the Commanding Officer of the accused or by a staff officer on behalf of a Deputy Inspector- General, Inspector-General or the Director-General.

166. Warrant in case of sentence of death . (1) Where a person is sentenced to death by hanging, a warrant in the Form set out in Appendix XI shall be set by the Director-General to the Superintendent of the prison where facilities for carrying out such a sentence exist, after the sentence has been confirmed by the Central Government and the accused shall be committed to the same prison by his Commanding Officer on the appropriate warrant.

(2) Where an accused person is sentenced to death by being shot, a warrant in the appropriate Form set out in Appendix XI shall be issued by the Director-General, to Deputy Inspector-General or under whom the accused may be serving, after the sentence has been confirmed by the Central Government. and the Deputy Inspector-General shall arrange for the execution of the sentence.

167. Changes in sentence . Where any change is made in the sentence of a person already committed to a civil prison, such change shall be communicated to the Superintendent of the prison to which such person has been committed by the Commanding Officer or such other person as mentioned in rule 165 in the Form set out in Appendix XII.

168. Sentence of dismissal . (1) Sentence of dismissal shall take effect from the date of promulgation of such sentence or from any subsequent date as may be specified at the time of promulgation.

(2) A sentence of dismissal combined with imprisonment to be undergone in a civil prison shall not take effect until such person has been committed to a civil prison.

CHAPTER XIII PETITIONS

169. Petitions against finding and sentence of Court . (1) A person subject to the Act who has been tried by a Court shall be allowed to put in one petition before confirmation, to the confirming authority and one petition after confirmation to any officer or authority mentioned in section 131.

(2) In the case of a Summary Force Court he shall be allowed to put in one petition only to any of the officers mentioned in section 131.

170. Period of Limitation . (1) A petition, before confirmation, shall be submitted, within two weeks of the conclusion of trial.

(2) A petition after confirmation shall be submitted within three months of the date on which the sentence was promulgated:

Provided that the time taken by such person to obtain a copy of the proceedings shall be excluded in computing period of three months.

171. Mode of submitting petitions . (1) (a) A petition by a person who is still a member of the Force shall be submitted through his Commanding Officer.

(b) A petition by a person who has ceased to be a member of the Force may be submitted to the Commanding Officer of the unit in which the trial was held.

(2) An officer to whom a petition is submitted or to whom a petition has been forwarded shall forward it to the next superior within a period of one week:

Provided that an officer may not forward a petition if he is competent to give the redress asked for and decides to do so.

(3) An officer receiving a petition shall send it to the Judge Attorney-General or to the officer approved by him for advice.

CHAPTER XIV COURT OF INQUIRY

172. Composition . (1) A Court of Inquiry may consist of one or more members and if only one member is appointed he shall be an officer or if more than one member is appointed, at least one of them should be an officer and persons not subject to the Act, may also be appointed as additional members when the Court is to investigate matters of such a specialised nature as may require the assistance of specialised persons for proper investigation.

(2) The member or members of a Court of Inquiry ordered to be held into the conduct of an officer shall not be of a lower rank than the rank of such an officer and in case it is not possible to appoint all the members of the same or the higher rank, at least the presiding officer of such a Court of Inquiry shall be of a higher rank than the officer whose conduct is under inquiry.

173. Assembly order . (1) A Court of Inquiry may be assembled by order of a Commanding Officer not below the rank of Commandant or any officer or authority superior to him.

(2) The order assembling the Court of Inquiry shall state the composition of the Court, the time and place for its assembly and clearly state the matters which the court will investigate and it will also provide for the administrative requirements of the Court.

174. Members of Court not to be sworn or affirmed . The members of the Court shall not be sworn or affirmed, but when the Court is a Court of Inquiry or recovered prisoners of war, the members shall make the following declaration :

"I do declare upon my honour that I will duly and Impartially inquire into and give my opinion as to the circumstances in which became a prisoner of war, according to the true spirit and meaning of the Standing Order of the Force; and I do further declare, upon my honour that I will not, on any account, or at any time disclose or discover my own vote or opinion or that of any particular member of the court, unless required to do so by competent authority."

175. Procedure of Courts of Inquiry . (1) The proceedings of a Court of Inquiry shall not be open to the public and only such persons may attend the proceedings as are permitted by the Court to do so.

(2) The evidence of all witnesses shall be taken on oath or affirmation and signed by them after the same has been read over and explained to them.

Explanation . For the purpose of this rule, the Court shall administer the oath or affirmation to witnesses, as if the court were a Force Court.

(3) Evidence given by witnesses shall be recorded in narrative form unless the Court considers that any question and answers may be recorded as such.

(4) The court may take into consideration any documents even though they are not formally proved after recording the reasons thereof.

(5) The court may ask witnesses any questions, in any form, that they consider necessary to elicit the truth and may take into consideration any evidence, whether the same is admissible under the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) or not.

(6) No counsel, or legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear before a Court of Inquiry.

(7) Provisions of section 101 shall apply for procuring the attendance of witnesses before the Court of Inquiry and witnesses shall be summoned as per Form set out in Appendix XV.

(8) (a) Save in the case of a prisoner of war who is still absent whenever the subject matter of inquiry is the conduct or character of a particular person, such person may be associated throughout with the inquiry and be given full opportunity of making any statement, or giving any evidence, he may wish to make or give, and of cross-examination any witness whose evidence in his opinion, affects his character or reputation.

(b) In other cases, before giving opinion against any person subject to the Act, the Court shall afford that person an opportunity to know all that has been stated against him, cross-examine any witnesses who have given evidence against him, and make a statement and call witnesses in his defence.

(9) The answers given by a witness to any question asked before the Court shall not be admissible against such a witness on any charge at any subsequent occasion except a charge of giving false evidence before such Court.

(10) Where the proceedings of an inquiry are submitted to a higher authority for orders under rule 177 such authority before disagreeing with the opinion of the Court, shall record reasons for doing so. In such a case, provisions of clause (b) of sub-rule (8) may not be complied with.

(11) The Court may be re-assembled as often as the officer who assembled the court may direct, for the purpose of examining additional witnesses, or further examining any witness or recording further information and in such a case the Court may record fresh opinion if considered necessary after complying with the provisions of clause (b) of sub rule (8).

176. Courts of Inquiry, when to be held . (1) A Court of Inquiry may be held to inquire into any disciplinary matter or any other matter of importance.

(2) In addition to a Court of Inquiry required to be held under sections 60 and 65 or section 74 of the Act, a Court of Inquiry shall be held in the following cases :

- (a) (i) All unnatural deaths of persons subject to the Act or of other persons within the Force lines, an immediate report shall be sent through the messenger to the officer-in-charge of the police station within whose jurisdiction the place of such unnatural death exists.
- (ii) In cases when such report cannot, for any reasons be delivered within a reasonable time, the Commanding Officer or the senior most officer of the unit present shall prepare a report in the Form set out in Appendix XIII.
- (b) All injuries sustained by persons subject to the Act which are likely to cause full or partial disability, the court shall in such case determine whether such injuries were attributable to service or not.
- (c) All financial irregularities, losses, theft and misappropriation of public or Force property, where it is necessary to obtain the order of a superior officer on such irregularities, loss, theft or misappropriation.
- (d) All losses of secret documents and any other material of secret or above security classification, the Court of Inquiry shall be ordered by an officer or authority superior to the Commanding Officer of the Unit having the lost document or material on its charge.
- (e) All injuries sustained by private persons or damages to their property in respect of which there is likely to be a claim against the Government or the Force.

177. Action on the proceedings of a Court of Inquiry . The proceedings of a Court of Inquiry shall be submitted by the presiding officer to the officer or authority who ordered the Court and such officer or authority on receiving the proceedings may pass final orders thereon himself, if he is empowered to do so, or refer them to a superior authority.

178. Copies of Court of Inquiry proceedings . A person subject to the Act against whom the Court of Inquiry has given an opinion or who is being tried by a Force Court on a charge relating to matter investigated by the Court of Inquiry, shall be entitled to copies of the proceedings of the Court of Inquiries unless the Director-General orders otherwise.

Explanation . For the purposes of this chapter Court means a Court of Inquiry.

CHAPTER XV MISCELLANEOUS

179. Prescribed officer under section 11 . Officer not below the rank of Commandant may, under sub-section (2) of Section 11, dismiss or remove from the service any person under his command other than an officer or a subordinate officer.

180. Authority prescribed for the purpose of section 13(1) . The authority for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be :

- (i) Director-General in respect of all personnel subject to the Act other than officers.
- (ii) Central Government in respect of officers.

181. Prescribed officer under sections 61 and 62 . (1) The following shall be the prescribed officers for the purpose of clause (i) of sub-section (2) of section 61 and section 62:

- (i) Commandant in case of subordinate officers and enrolled persons.
- (ii) Director-General in the case of officers.

(2) Any power conferred under this rule on any of the aforesaid officer may also be exercised by any officer superior to that officer.

182. Prescribed authorities under section 66 . Any authority superior to the one awarding any deductions under Chapter V of the Act shall be competent to remit the whole or part of the said deductions.

183. Prescribed officer under section 75 . The prescribed officer for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 75 shall be the officer commanding a Frontier , sector or training institution or an officer commanding the Force in the field.

EXECUTION OF SENTENCE

184. Prescribed manner of custody and prescribed officer under sections 111 and 112 . (1) The prescribed officer for the purposes of section 112 shall be:

- (a) in the case of trial by Summary Force Court, the Commanding Officer of the Unit to which the accused person belongs, or any authority superior to such Commanding Officer;
- (b) in the case of trial by any other Court, the convening officer or any authority superior to him.

(2) When the officer who proposes to act as a prescribed officer under sub- rule (1) is under the command of the officer who has taken action in the case under sub- section (4) of section 111, he shall ordinarily obtain the approval of such officer before he acts, but if he is of the opinion that service exigencies, or the necessities of discipline, render it impossible or inexpedient to obtain such approval, he may act without obtaining such approval, but shall report his action and the reasons thereof to such officer.

(3) For the purpose of sub-section (4) of section 111 the accused shall be confined in such manner as may, in the opinion of the proper Force authority, be best calculated to keep him securely without unnecessary harshness, as he is not to be considered as a criminal but as a person labouring under a disease.

185. Prescribed officer under section 132 . The prescribed officer for the purpose of section 132 shall be the officer commanding a frontier, sector or training institution in respect of proceedings confirmed by him or by a person under his command.

186. Authorised deductions . The following deductions may be made from the pay and all other emoluments payable to a person subject to the Act, namely:-

(a) upon the general or special order of the Central Government, any sum required to meet any public claim, there may be against him ;

(b) any sum required to meet compulsory contributions to any provident fund, welfare fund or any other fund approved by the Central Government or to meet any debt that may be due from him towards any Force institutions such as messes, canteens and the like.

Explanation . (i) "Public Claim" means any public debt or disallowance including over-issue, or a deficiency or irregular expenditure of public money or store of which, after due investigation, no examination satisfactory to the Central Government, is given by the person who is responsible for the same.

(ii) The aforesaid deductions shall be in addition to those specified in the Act.

187. Repeal and Savings . (1) All rules and orders relating to the matters covered by these rules shall stand repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with any of the provisions of these rules.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken under the provisions of the rules or orders so repealed shall, in so far as such thing or action is not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules, be deemed to have been done or taken under the provisions of these rules, as if the said provisions were in force when such thing was done or such action was taken and shall continue in force accordingly until superseded by anything done or any action taken under these rules.

188. Transitory provision . Any rule or order applicable to the Force on commencement of these rules shall, unless repugnant to these rules, continue to apply unless and until abrogated or modified by the Central Government or any other competent authority.
